8 OPENING DAY REMARKS BY SPEAKER GEORGE

10 TO THE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 11 THE 62ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY, STAFF FAMILY, MEDIA,
12 GUESTS, FRIENDS AND CITIZENS:

13
14 Welcome to the opening day of the second session of the 62nd
15 General Assembly and our first day together in the new year 2000.

16
17 One year ago we talked about history as a source of strength and 18 we took a few minutes to reflect on the changes that had occurred in this 19 body over the last 100 years. In that context we were reminded that as 20 we make today's history we are being watched and listened to as we do
21 the public's business in the full daylight of the public's eye. What we do 22 and say here impacts the lives, freedoms and fortunes of all the people in 23 Colorado.

24
25 After convening last year, we then tied into a full agenda of work.
26 We set about balancing the desire for tax cuts with the demand for 27 increased statewide infrastructure. We sought to work with real numbers, 28 within the law, with honesty and sincerity, to seek the delicate balance.
29 We dealt with a wide array of issues, including public education, election 30 laws, public safety at the lowest justifiable cost, unfunded mandates to 31 local government, telecommunications, guns, transit and highways among 32 many, many other lesser issues and bills.

33
34 We sought at the outset to establish the right principles of process, 35 analysis and conduct. We always sought to have regular, open and 36 cordial communication with the Senate and Governor. We were in large 37 part successful in that effort and were rewarded with regular, open and 38 cordial communication and support from the Senate and our new 39 Governor.

40
41 We tried to frequently remind ourselves that this process belongs
42 to the citizens who have loaned to us this opportunity to lead. This 43 opportunity is a public trust, to be treated with the utmost of good faith
44 and loving care.

45
46 We tried to remind ourselves to be thankful for the support we get 47 on a daily basis from our friends, our co-workers and family. We strove 48 to treat our staff with the high honor and respect that they continue to 49 deserve.

50
51 We urged ourselves to be respectful, open and honest with the 52 press and media. We acknowledged the needs and obligations of the 53 lobby.

54
55

1 As guiding principles we tried to remember to be civil and 2 compassionate. We tried to be ever ready to compromise. We 3 understood then as we do today that the advent of term limits adds an 4 extra urgency to help each other on our arbitrarily shortened paths toward 5 our public goals. It is as true today as it was one year ago and 100 years 6 ago, that we are all entitled to work in this room in an atmosphere of 7 mutual respect and civility, and upon occasion, affection.

8
9 We asked ourselves at the end of the session, a few short months
10 ago, "How well did the House and Senate and the Governor work
11 together to address the state's most important and pressing needs?"

12
13 Last year the General Assembly worked within the context of an 14 economy that is growing, an unprecedented revenue surplus that just 15 keeps getting bigger. Many of us were here for the first time last year.
16 Many of us were new leaders trying to learn our way with on-the-job
17 training. We had many new committee chairs and new budget committee
18 members. And we had a new governor.

19
20 Some might have expected minimal accomplishments from all of 21 us under these circumstances. But this was not to be so.

22
23 All of us stepped up to the challenges and tackled the new issues
24 with courage. We adopted a bold, new approach to highway construction 25 that the Supreme Court said was beyond the legislature's power. In 26 acknowledging the value of functioning separation of powers, we moved 27 the issue to the voters and were successful in gaining the endorsement of 28 the people for this new plan. We were proud to watch and share in the 29 strong and convincing leadership of our new Governor who warmed up 30 to his job like the pro that he is.

31
32 Thanks in large part to the hard work of Representative
33 McPherson and his Finance Committee members, we slogged through an 34 almost overpowering array of tax cut bills. Through it all we provided
35 honest and genuine and significant tax relief to reduce the TABOR
36 excess. We enacted a permanent TABOR excess refund mechanism, 37 removing the need for a special session, and accomplishment that had 38 eluded us just the year before. We closed the school finance bill and the 39 budget bill with plenty of time left in the session. Some said that we 40 could not pull ourselves together well enough to do this, but we did--and 41 we even adjourned sine die with time left on the clock, and no work
42 undone, for the first time in many years.

43
44 The Sixty-second General Assembly in its first session did not sit 45 back and act like we were only caretakers. Rather, we took on new and 46 difficult issues that go to the central concerns of the citizens of this state.

47
48 But now this body has to get better and deliver a new level of 49 results. This is what the electorate wants. The people want results in 50 those areas where there is consensus and the state needs to move forward.
51 This is our direction: to be ready now in this new year to reach
52 consensus and move forward to help make Colorado an even better place
53 to learn, work and serve our communities.

54
55 We must recognize the real accomplishments of the 1999 session.
56 We must acknowledge that this is a diverse and varied state that is

1 characterized by a healthy difference of opinion. And those differences
2 are manifested here in the legislature. The truth is that the General
3 Assembly confronts the most difficult issues we face. We cannot and 4 will not and should not act when there is a lack of real consensus. A lack 5 of consensus is a message from the people that they are not ready to 6 define a new legal framework surrounding the issue or that they think that 7 the issue is best left for resolution by the individual conscience or to 8 further definition by discussion or debate in the open public processes.
9

10 This new session will bring difficult issues back again and the 11 process will again struggle to find consensus. But I submit that the lack 12 of consensus is not always or necessarily a defect, is not a sign or badge
13 of failure. The lack of consensus may just mean that our people's will, as 14 reflected through our democratic processes, has not yet reached enough
15 definition to accomplish change.
16

17 Change continues to be the by word of our times. This change is 18 complex and overwhelming. As we are swept by change we seem to 19 increasingly hunger for a simpler creed to help us make it through the day
20 and to lead a life of integrity.
21

22 Part of our responsibility as leaders is to focus on this hunger, and 23 the creed that would feed it. Do we need such a creed? Is it new, or old, 24 or a mixture of the old and the new? Is a creed the answer? If we cannot 25 find this new creed, what do we use in its place, and how do we reach 26 consensus, as a community, on the basic ground rules for our society in 27 the next century?
28

29 For many of us, the imagery projected to the public consciousness 30 for the year 2000 and our many seemingly unsolvable problems has been 31 one of doom and gloom. This is wrong. It should be one of promise and 32 renewal.
33

34 Are we, as society's leaders prepared to say, or even imply, that 35 Colorado, or America, or human civilization, has reached its zenith and 36 is now on a downward track? How do we know that the coming
37 generations will not be the salvation of humankind? Who is to say that 38 these who will follow us will not be able to do a better job of raising 39 children, quelling violence, living together in a world community? What 40 do we of the 20th Century, as magnificent as it has been, know of the 41 Coloradans and Americans who will lead us in the 21st?
42

43 The real question for us today is "What can we do to pave the way
44 for them to lead this state, this nation, this world in the next century?"
45 Colorado has become a national symbol of the actualization of the 46 American Dream: mountain vistas, rugged individualism, clear air, clean 47 water, clean government, a miracle economy, equal opportunity, personal 48 liberties, a place for a new start--the true community spirit that settled the 49 American West.
50

51 Yet, Colorado is the place where Columbine happened. This is 52 where we cannot find consensus on growth, gun rights, the role of 53 government in personal moral choices.
54

55 Democracy has been defined as finding proximate solutions to 56 insoluble problems. (Reinhold Neibur.) Nowhere is this more true than

1 in this room. We must remember the limits within which we work. Our 2 main task, our reason for our existence as state representatives, is to make
3 laws. Yet, increasingly we are becoming aware that laws themselves do
4 not solve problems. People acting together in good conscience solve
5 problems. Can we, will we, in this room today act together in good
6 conscience to solve problems? Please resolve with me today that we will.

7
8 Can we get the people's work done this year? What will it take to 9 get the work done in this new year? For one thing, it will take long 10 hours; we have an enormous load of bills about to avalanche in on top of 11 us. Every single one of those bills will receive a full and fair hearing in 12 committee. Some of them may actually survive to see the light of debate 13 in this room. We will do the people's work best if we will focus on the 14 substance of the bill's before, and leave the electioneering and the 15 partisanship on the campaign trail outside this building.

16
17 Last year saw a respectful and productive working relationship
18 between our majority leader and our minority leader. I look forward to 19 that good relationship continuing and growing during this year.

20
21 We will get the people's work done if we will listen closely to 22 what our Governor has to say to us tomorrow. He cares very much for 23 the State of Colorado, for its people, and for us. He cares very much to 24 do what is right and good. He has worked hard on his agenda for the year
25 2000 and has worked hard in determining how to express his goals, hopes 26 and dreams to us tomorrow. Let us give him our undivided attention. Let 27 us help him lead our fellow citizens by striving to bring into law the 28 recommendations that he brings to us.

29
30 Thank you for giving me these few moments to share with you
31 some of my thoughts and hopes. Congratulations to all of you for being 32 willing to serve the public. This work is honorable and good. As we 33 begin this session let us each and all strive to do the people's work with 34 the dignity and trust and honor that it deserves.

35
36
37
38 OPENING DAY REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE GORDON

39
40 Last year I made my first speech as the Minority Leader of the 41 Colorado House of Representatives. Today I am making my last. Such 42 is Representative Government under term limits. I was sworn in on 43 January 8, 1993. Of those that were present that day only Debbie 44 Allen, the Speaker, Bob Hagedorn, Bill Kaufman, Moe Keller, Ron May, 45 Marcy Morrison, Penn Pfiffner, Jack Taylor, and myself are left. It has 46 been an honor to serve here with all of you and with all of the other
47 Representatives that have come and gone during the last seven years.

48
49 Yesterday I called a friend and asked her what she thought I
50 should say today. She said, "Tell them not to be partisan and to work
51 together. That is what the people want these days." I said, "That is what 52 I said last year." And then I said, "Well maybe I should say it again.
53 Maybe we forgot."

54
55 Yesterday on the steps of the Capitol we stood together to 56 announce our principles and our priorities. It was not our intent to be

1 critical of the majority party. We intended to discuss an agenda that we 2 felt derived from our Democratic values. We believe strongly in that 3 agenda but we know that we will not get any of it passed without majority
4 party support and we believe that it deserves that support on the merits.
5 I and the members of my caucus believe that both parties are working for 6 what they feel is the best interest of the people of the state.

7
8 This is an election year. Every seat in the house is up. There are 9 people in this body running against each other. Others are running for 10 leadership positions. There will be numerous temptations to try to gain 11 some political advantage by how we act in this building. We need to 12 resist the temptation.

13
14 The Capitol is sacred ground. The people have sent us here to 15 help educate their children.... to preserve the awesome beauty around
16 us...., the purple mountains, the streams, the prairie, the diverse scenery
17 that makes Colorado the envy of the nation. They have sent us here to 18 help them devise a fair and effective health care system and to make their 19 communities safe from criminals.

20
21 In this building we are an example to the rest of the state. We 22 want children to be honest, civil and respectful. We need to be honest, 23 civil and respectful. We want children to be take responsibility for the 24 consequences of their behavior. We need to be responsible for the 25 consequences of ours. We want a community that works together in good 26 will to solve problems. We need to work together here in good will to 27 solve problems. We should not defile this building, the Colorado State 28 Capitol, with pettiness or partisanship on either side of the aisle. We 29 need to act here as we want our children to learn to act in school.

30
31 In our debates, in our votes and in our bills we need to keep in 32 mind the big ideas. Freedom, justice, community, individual 33 responsibility, equal opportunity, our children, their future. If we keep 34 these values in mind we will be on common ground.

35
36 We all want an education system that will allow every Colorado
37 child to reach his or her full potential.

38
39 We all want to preserved Colorado's natural beauty, open space,
40 air and water.

41
42 We all want to have a health care system that is effective,
43 confidential, and provides needed services to an expanding population.

45
46 And we all want our communities to be safe and Coloradans to be 47 free of the fear of crime.

48
49 We will differ on how to obtain these goals. But if we remember
50 that we share these goals and that we share many of the same values then 51 we will disagree with respect, and our disagreements will benefit our 52 employers because sometimes a Boulder Democrat may come up with the 53 best way to solve a problem and sometimes it will be an El Paso County
54 Republican.

55

1 Today I am speaking for the Democrats in the Colorado House.
2 And on behalf of my caucus I will make these commitments.

3
4 We commit to work for excellence in our education system for the 5 benefit of every Colorado child.

6
7 We commit to preserving the natural beauty of our state.

8
9 We commit to improving the health care available to Colorado
10 citizens.

11
12 We commit to making our communities safer.

13
14 And we commit to working with the majority party and the 15 Governor to accomplish these goals for the benefit of all Coloradans.

16
17 We make these commitments to the people of the state of 18 Colorado. These are aspirations. These are goals. And if on the last day 19 of the session we can say that on most of the previous 120 days we 20 worked to do the best for the people of this state and not for a narrower
21 interest like ourselves or our parties than we can be proud.

22
23 As we make these commitments I want to ask for something in 24 return from the people of the state. You need to vote and not just vote.
25 You need to know the names of the people that represent you in the 26 legislature and how we stand on issues. In an election, you need to know 27 the ballot issues and how the candidates differ.

28
29 John F. Kennedy once said, "The ignorance of one voter in a
30 Democracy impairs the security of all."

31
32 And yet with all of the people who have sacrificed and even died
33 to get us the right to live in a Democracy I have to say that the 34 performance of Americans and Coloradans as citizens is disgraceful.
35 People have many different reasons for not voting. Some say that they 36 are too busy. Some say that they feel their vote doesn't matter or that 37 interest groups control the legislature anyway. Interest groups obtain a 38 disproportionate power because they are filling a vacuum. If the citizens
39 of this state were knowledgeable, involved and active, special interest 40 would give way to the general interest. I am speaking to the people of 41 Colorado now. You are going to get the government you deserve. No
42 better and no worse. It doesn't matter how busy you are. If you want
43 individual responsibility. Then you need to be responsible. We got here 44 because you voted for us or because you let someone else do it for you.
45 Don't complain about the power of the gun lobby, or the real estate
46 developers, or the HMO's if you can't name your State Representative
47 and Senator. Practically all of us want to work for the general interest 48 and we need your help. Do your job and it will help us do ours. Be 49 citizens, not spectators. The decisions we make affect your children's 50 education, the roads that you drive on and the air that you breathe.

51
52 I want to end by practicing a little of what I preach. Democrats
53 usually are seen as allies of labor. And we do support working people
54 and their right to organize and bargain collectively. We feel it is a matter
55 of justice. We are, however, in the eighth year of the longest economic 56 expansion in history and Colorado is one of the most prosperous states in

1 the country. Much of the credit for this prosperity goes to the business
2 community and the risk takers and innovators. It is because of them that 3 we have the tax surplus to fight over. I also want to compliment the 4 Governor. He has taken positions on education, open space, light rail,
5 and firearm regulation that show a willingness to represent a broader
6 constituency than a single party. I am sure that we will disagree with him 7 on many issues before his term is through but when we agree we should 8 not hesitate to say so because he is of a different party.

9
10 I want to thank my caucus for giving me the opportunity to 11 represent them. I will endeavor to do this with honor and principle. I
12 look forward to having a good, positive session that will make the people
13 of the state proud of their House of Representatives, and proud that they 14 live in the State of Colorado. As we go about the people's business let's 15 act in such a way that we bring honor to ourselves, our democratic 16 process and the Capitol in which we work. Thank you.

17
19 Representative Dean moved that the remarks of the Speaker and 20 Representative Gordon be printed in the House Journal.

21
22
23
24 APPOINTMENTS

25
26 The Speaker announced that Representative Gordon has made the 27 following appointments changes in committee appointments:

28
29 Representative S.Williams to replace Representative Keller on the 30 Committee on Education.
31 Representative Chavez to replace Representative S. Williams on the 32 Committee on Judiciary.

33
