Upon request of Senator Anderson, her remarks on The Heart of Columbine Day were ordered spread upon the pages of the journal.

April 20, 2001

Governor Bill Owens declared today, April 20, 2001, as The Heart of Columbine Day.

In the days and weeks that followed April 20, 1999, Columbine High School received many gifts and letters. The members of Columbine High School's faculty, staff, student body and alumni know that they cannot give back to everyone. With this thought in mind, The Heart of Columbine was created to encourage community involvement with youth. The Heart of Columbine is inviting other schools across the country to develop The Heart of Columbine program in their communities. The members of The Heart of Columbine will never forget

- Kyle Velasquez
- Lauren Townsend
- John Tomlin
- Isaiah Shoels
- Rachel Scott
- Dave Sanders
- Daniel Rohrbough
- Daniel Mauser
- Matt Kechter
- Kelly Fleming
- Corey De Pooter
- Steve Curnow and
- Cassie Bernall

who lost their lives, and the group would like to forever dedicate April 20 as a day of unity and sharing. The Heart of Columbine Day has been set-aside for the people of the state of Colorado to remember, but also to focus on the positive contributions that youth are making in their communities.

So far this semester, The Heart of Columbine has been very successful. On February 14, The National Honor Society finished a canned food drive and collected over 7200 items which were given to The Food Bank of the Rockies. The Art Club is making ceramic bowls to be sold. The boy's basketball team collected money at their last game of the season. The Bible Club is traveling to The Denver Rescue Mission one day a month. Peer counseling has put our money jars throughout the community. United in Action (the diversity club) promoted The Heart of Columbine at the Peace Jam Conference that was held in Denver in February and they are donating portions of their wages from their employers. FCCLA has worked in the soup kitchen at The Denver Rescue Mission. The choir department will be sponsoring a talent show on April 25 in which all proceeds will go to The Heart of Columbine. The CHS Debate team is working through Children International to sponsor a child in the Philippines. The Debate team is also teaming up with Normandy Elementary and together will sponsor two children next year. The football team is going out in the community and volunteering to do yard work. The upper level math class is selling graphing calculator covers and the proceeds will go to Compa Food Ministries.

This past Saturday The Heart of Columbine sponsored its First Annual The Heart of Columbine Community Day. During the community day, nearly $4800 was raised through carnival games, yard and plant sales. All the proceeds will go to metro area charities that help eliminate hunger. None of the money that was collected will go to Columbine High School.

The Heart of Columbine is spreading across the country. There are groups in Moline, Illinois and Prescott, Arizona that are also involved.

The Heart of Columbine is working to change the image of Columbine back to a beautiful mountain flower and not a name associated with tragedy.

The Heart of Columbine wishes to thank everyone for his or her support, love, prayers and donations.
