CORRESPONDENCE FROM COLORADO'S CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION

October 10, 2001

The Colorado General Assembly
(c/o Senator Bill Thiebaut, Majority Leader)
Denver, Colorado 80203

Dear Friends and Members of the Colorado General Assembly:

The tragedy of September 11 has touched all of us, and it is hard to imagine that any of our lives will be the same and uncolored by this dark tragedy.

As elected representatives, I believe it is extremely important for us to come together to take whatever actions are necessary to protect our citizens from future harm. Although our state may be far from the devastation in New York and Washington, we are not unaffected and we are certainly not free from future risk. I encourage you to continue your important work of leading the great state we call Colorado.

This is a very delicate time for America. We want to do whatever it takes to protect the physical security of our citizens, but we also want to ensure that our civil liberties are maintained. We want to see justice done to those who've harmed us, but we must not brand individuals with guilt simply because of their ethnic or cultural heritage. It is a fine line we walk, but we have no choice but to walk it. And we cannot diminish what is great about America. That would give victory to the terrorist.

I am confident in your wisdom and your dedication to the people of Colorado and know, that in these times, you will act for the common good of all. I look forward to working with you to meet the challenge of protecting our people and the cause of freedom and liberty throughout the world.

Warm Regards,
