INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolution was read by title:

SR01S2-003 by Senator Thiebaut--Concerning appointment of a special committee to study necessary changes to the state military statutes.

WHEREAS, The state statutes pertaining to the state military forces and treatment of veterans of the armed forces have not received comprehensive review and consideration in several years; and

WHEREAS, Many of the state statutes pertaining to the state military forces and treatment of veterans of the armed forces may be outdated and may no longer be adequate to address modern situations that the state military forces may encounter; and

WHEREAS, The recent terrorist attacks on cities within the United States are startling and frightening demonstrations of the increased threat to the country and to the citizens of Colorado from foreign and domestic terrorists and enemies; and

WHEREAS, To protect the safety of Colorado citizens and other American citizens, Colorado's state military forces may soon be called upon to provide protective and, potentially, combative services; and

WHEREAS, The strong potential for increased action on the part of Colorado's state military forces requires the General Assembly to ensure immediately that the laws pertaining to Colorado's state military forces, including veterans, are up to date and adequate to address all situations that may arise; and

WHEREAS, The exigent circumstances creating the need for an immediate study of the laws pertaining to Colorado's state military forces, including veterans, make it appropriate to create a special Senate committee to conduct such a study and prepare legislative recommendations for introduction during the Second Regular Session of the Sixty-third General Assembly; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-third General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

(1) That there is hereby created a special Senate committee to study articles 1 to 5 of title 28, Colorado Revised Statutes, pertaining to military forces and veterans and recommend such changes as may be necessary to adequately address issues that may arise with regard to the state military forces. The members of the Senate Government, Veterans and Military Relations, and Transportation Committee shall serve as the special Senate committee.

(2) That the special Senate committee shall meet up to six times during the 2001 interim to study the need for changes to articles 1 to 5 of title 28, Colorado Revised Statutes, including but not limited to changes to address the following issues:

(a) Updating the Colorado military code as necessary to reflect changes in federal laws;

(b) The procedures by which women may enlist in the state military forces; and

(c) Definitions of pertinent terms, including but not limited to "terrorist" and "saboteur".

(3) That the special Senate committee may form subcommittees to accomplish its goals and may invite additional members of any community in the state to participate in such subcommittees. Each meeting of the special Senate committee shall include an opportunity for public comment on items related to the committee's agenda.

(4) That, notwithstanding the provisions of section 2-2-307, Colorado Revised Statutes, the members of the special Senate committee shall serve on the committee without compensation, including without per diem and without compensation for expenses.

(5) That the Legislative Council staff, the Office of Legislative Legal Services staff, and the Joint Budget Committee staff shall be available to assist, within existing appropriations, the special Senate committee in carrying out its duties.

(6) That the special Senate committee shall not constitute an interim committee for purposes of the Joint Rules. On or before January 15, 2002, the special Senate committee shall submit a report to the full Senate regarding the results of its study, including any legislative recommendations arising therefrom.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Senate respectfully urges the honorable Governor of the state of Colorado to issue immediately an executive order authorizing the enlistment of women in the state military forces, which executive order the Senate respectfully requests relate back in time to those women who have served in the state military forces since the enactment of section 28-3-103 (9), Colorado Revised Statutes, in its current form.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be sent to Governor Bill Owens.

Laid over until later in the day, retaining its place on the calendar.

The following resolutions were read by title and referred to the following committee:

HJR01S2-1006 by Representatives Mitchell and Dean; also Senator Hillman--Concerning the general assembly's constitutional role in determining the congressional redistricting of Colorado. Education
