

Court change for Colorado:

All local judges are recalled in Colorado and after this issue passes new elections for judges will be held with in 90 days. All elections will be non-partisan. Judges may not serve for over 10 years. Present judges will serve until the elections, however all rulings may be appealed after this election and will reviewed by the new judge.

All citizens may ask for a change a venue and it cannot be denied. A citizen review board of 11 members in judicial area may over turn small claims courts rulings. The review board will be of non-lawyers and the county commissioners will appoint five, and the public at large will elect 6. They will be paid $5,000 a year and $100 a meeting. The state legislature may give mileage for rural areas. If the real estate law passes the board and the real estate review board may be the same.

