103 CHALLENGES THAT INCLUDE DYSLEXIA.

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not necessarily reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted.)

Requires the department of education ("department") to make available to school districts, administrative units, and local education agencies technical assistance and training ("training") pertaining to students with literacy challenges, including dyslexia. Requires the department to develop the training based on a tiered continuum of intensity for intervention within the response to intervention model.

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment.
Capital letters indicate new material to be added to existing statute.
Dashes through the words indicate deletions from existing statute.

HOUSE
Amended 2nd Reading
April 10, 2008

Encourages the department to coordinate the training with current best practices and work occurring in teacher preparation programs at state institutions of higher education. Requires the department to make an annual report to the state board of education and the education committees of the house of representatives and senate concerning the activities and status of the training.
