TITLE: CONCERNING THE PROHIBITION OF INCENTIVES TO LIMIT THE PROVISION OF MEDICALLY APPROPRIATE HEALTH CARE SERVICES TO A COVERED PERSON.Summary of Legislation

This bill creates the Colorado Health Care Anti-Kickback Act and makes it a deceptive trade practice for an insurance company to provide incentives to healthcare providers to deny, reduce, or delay evidence-based, medically necessary and appropriate procedures to patients. The bill was postponed indefinitely by the Senate Appropriations Committee on May 5, 2008.

Assessment

This bill is assessed at no fiscal impact. The remedies for engaging in deceptive trade practices include action by the Attorney General, or a private party may bring suit for damages. Few cases of this type of deceptive trade practice are anticipated, and any that arise can be addressed within existing resources. No additional appropriations are required.
