Description:

The 9 member board of trustees serves as the governing authority for Fort Lewis College (formerly the college was governed by the Board of Agriculture). The Governor appoints 7 members to 4 year terms. The Senate confirms these 7 members. No more than 4 members can be from the same political party and no more or less than 2 of the members must reside in southwestern Colorado (Archuleta, Dolores, La Plata, Montezuma, or San Juan County). The 8th member is an elected member of the Ft. Lewis student body who is a full-time junior or senior. He or she will serve a one year term and does not have the right to vote. The 9th member is an elected member of the faculty at Ft. Lewis who will serve a 2 year term without the right to vote.
