Description:

Members must be residents of the state, have a knowledge of Colorado agricultural activity, and represent the various agricultural operations and geographical regions of the state. One member is appointed by the governor, with the consent of the Senate, three are appointed by the President of the Senate, and three are appointed by the Speaker of the House. No more than four of the appointed members shall be of the same political party. The Commissioner of Agriculture is an ex officio member. Each member shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

The authority has the power to issue bonds and make loans at a reduced interest rate for agricultural purposes. Executive Order D008 83 gives the authority the power to comply with the federal internal revenue code to insure that the bonds issued by the board are tax exempt.
