

Fire Department Fill the Boot Totals Before and After Solicitation Ordinances

Castle Rock Fire Department: Ordinance went into effect in year 2007

Year: 2006 - $30,868
 2007 - $12,594
 2008 - $11,493

Edgewater Fire Department: Ordinance went into effect in year 2001
 Ordinance was changed in 2002 to allow Fire Fighters to collect in streets

Year: 2000 - $17,199
 2001 - $ 1,241
 2002 - $13,306

Longmont Fire Department: Ordinance went into effect in year 2004

Year: 2003 - $14,707
 2004 $ 5,434
 2005 $ - 0 -

Loveland Fire Department: Ordinance went into effect in year 2005

Year: 2003 - $12,545
 2004 - $13,843
 2005 - $ 2,487

Wheatridge Fire Department: Ordinance went into effect in year 2005

Year: 2003 - $16,701
 2004 - $28,478
 2005 - $ 3,871

In 2005, an ordinance prohibiting solicitation in the streets was passed in unincorporated Jefferson County. The Fairmont, Foothills, and Pleasantview Fire Departments were not able to collect at all, resulting in a combined loss for MDA of $9,231.

Other large Fire Departments affected by ordinances include:

- Aurora Fire Department
- Colorado Springs Fire Department
- West Metro Fire Department