

The Crystal River above Thomas Road observed on 9/24/2012. This extremely low flow condition effectively eliminated upstream-downstream hydrological (and ecological) connectivity.

