

14-1386

WHAT IS IN THIS BILL:

Section 1: definition of danger for self or others, goes into effect Jan 1, 2015

- This definition was developed for 13-1296 by stakeholders to take effect by letter of revisors or not at all if no letter received by November 1, 2013 and was reviewed and approved by the Task Force

Section 2: definition of gravely disabled

- The crossed out language is what we approved in 13-1296 to be effective July 1, 2014.
- The old & current definition of gravely disabled is the same as section 2, however it is repealed as of July 1, 2014.
- This section in the law puts the current law BACK into effect after July 1, 2014 so that we have a gravely disabled definition in effect in this time period before section 3 takes effect on January 1, 2015.

Section 3: definition of gravely disabled, goes into effect January 1, 2015

- This definition was developed and approved by the Task Force.

Section 4: emergency procedure 27-65-105, goes into effect Jan 1, 2015

- The changes were discussed by stakeholders in 2013 and the approved by the Task Force

Section 5: effective dates

- Sections 1 and 3 and 4 are effective January 1, 2015 in order to give training time for the new definitions of danger for self & others and gravely disabled.
- Section 2, 5, 6 are effective July 1, 2014

Section 6: safety clause
