Keep your religion out of my life. Enforcing your religious belief isn't the government's job.

—Lloyd Worley, Greeley, CO

Here we go again...Get these extremists out of the legislative process and OUT OF MY WOMB!

—Brandy K Herbert, Conifer, CO

Once again, I'm astounded at Republican misogyny and ignorance. Can't these people evolve already?

—Richard Tapper, Chapel Hill, NC

Every person should have the right to decide their own life and what happens in it! Government needs to work for the people not against them! Quit trying to force the republican will onto others. If you don't like something don't do it, but let each person decide for themselves!

—Lori Gaughan, Durango, CO

Just can't seem to leave women alone? What is wrong with you Republicans? Don't you trust women to make the "correct" choice? Please get on to governing our state as we have issues that you can actually help with...assuming of course this is what you want to do. Women are quite capable of deciding what is right for them without your personal views attached, thank you.

—David R Schiller, Fort Collins, CO

Seriously! with all the things that need attention in this state, notably the crumbling infrastructure, this is what demands your attention?

—Kathleen Anne Woodward, Broomfield, CO

I object to Colorado's attempt to ban abortions. I urge you to vote no on House bill 14-1133

—Maggie Kerrigan, Westminster, CO

This bill is an insane attempt to control women's bodies and freedom. Next they will have us wearing veils and take away our vote. Imagine losing my vote if you will. Take this seriously.

—Amanda Morris Conti, Superior, CO

Please stop this bill. Please focus on the economy, jobs, and the environment!

—Richard Levy, Steamboat Springs, CO

Without abortions we are going to have more unwanted children living in poverty.

—Charlotte E. Thompson M.D., La Jolla, CA

Abortions are a perfectly legitimate medical procedure. Doctors should be able to practice medicine without fear and women should be able to make decisions over their health and bodies without outside interference.

—Patrizia Hayashi, Lakeside, CA

I do not women getting this from untrained people..THINK!

—Pam Darnell, Redstone, CO

Coloradans have voted several times on this and it failed by a huge margin. Do not go against the peoples' wishes

—Stacy Kelly, Colorado Springs, CO

Please allow women to remain in charge of their bodies and their lives.

—Pickett Gregg Kildow III, Denver, CO

Colorado's voters have already spoken out loud and clear on this!

—Beverly Ann Bishop, Westminster, CO

No on abortion ban bill. Respect a right to make a personal medical decision.

Republicans: please come out of the dark ages. The god you adhere to is a replica of evil and should be considered to be only a vestige of the worst times of human history. Where is the golden rule in your thinking and acting?

—James Hoffmeister, Boulder, CO

I'm senior! I'm pro-woman and pro-choice. Quit wasting tax payer's money on anti-abortion bills, and start focusing on the real social problems of the world, like corruption of government via big business.

—Liz GiLES, Longmont, CO

We women won't stand for this attack on our rights. We've had enough.

—Lois Hickman, Longmont, CO

Let women decide what to do with their bodies! This type of legislation has no place in civilized society, where women are PEOPLE, not property.

—Ron Simpson, Colorado Springs, CO

I have lived through the era of back stre abortions - it was dangerous and demeaning to women - DO NOT FORCE WOMEN TO DO THIS AGAIN!!!

—La Rue Green, Colorado Springs, CO

I strongly urge you to vote against this bill.

—Aaron Rosenthal, Colorado springs, CO

I oppose any attempt to take away a woman's right as a free citizen of a free state to choose any medical procedure that she and her doctor thinks is appropriate to her at the time the decision needs to be made. No government should stand between a free citizen and a medical professional who is practicing safe and established medicine.

—Barbara Lynch, Cortez, CO

This attack on women's rights needs to stop now.

—Gwen Mataisz, Pitkin, CO

Women deserve the right to make their own personal choices.

—Bruce Nicholas Berger, Aspen, CO

—Richard Whitcomb Bryant, Silverthorne, CO

I guess you didn't get the message when the last two attempts to ban abortion were defeated by a large majority of voters.

Give up!

—Elisabeth Weber, Littleton, CO

Be kind to people and stay out of women's wombs. You have no business being there.

—Keith Scott, Ann Arbor, MI

Banning abortion won't end abortion. The rich will just fly to where it is legal and the poor will just go back to the back alleys of before. If you truly wish to end abortion, then you support the mother every step of the way, with comprehensive medical care including contraceptives, fair wages so she can afford to raise a child, and cheap or free childcare for everyone, because it takes a village to raise a child. So far, we are being a very poor village.

—Nicole Adriane Knuppel, Greeley, CO

GOP...let it go! Move on to other pressing issues. Abortion whether legal or illegal will happen. The need is there. This is a religious issue being pressed on the entire electorate...never good! Never democratic.

Your religious views have no place in the legislation of our state. My religious views are protected too. I am a member of an ancient, monotheistic faith which clearly shows that a living woman has a right to her life, but an unborn baby's needs cannot be placed ahead of those of its mother. Respect our Constitution. Do not persecute the women of our state for following a different religion from yours. America is not a Christian country, but one that offers "freedom for all". Your job is to protect my freedom, not to debase me and to curb my rights.

—Anna Kassner, Littleton, CO

Hey Gardner! I told you once before and I am telling you again. Gun control laws don't work because it only affects the law abiding citizen. You know this. Yet there seems to be this notion that legislating a woman's choice, a woman's body will stop abortion. It will not. Doing so only brings back Gosnell-monsters. You are not a woman or a medical doctor. This is not your business. My body, my family, my choice. Get your nose out of my uterus, get back to work on the economy. Return your party back to the limited, small government platform they claim to be for. Sincerely, Elizabeth Mavity A woman in your district who votes!

—Elizabeth Mavity, Brighton, CO

The abortion issue again! I am against this new bill to ban abortions. Women should have the right to choose what is right for themselves and their bodies AND for their circumstances. If this bill passes, who will take care all these babies and raise them. And who will pay for foster care for these babies. A foster parent receives from $350 to $850 per month for foster care until age 18 and beyond. Do the Republicans think they can pass a bill for money to pay foster parents to raise these babies to adulthood???? I live in a small county and there are not enough foster parents for children who need homes.

Stop trying to shrink government small enough to fit in a woman's vagina. I'm convinced Republicans are very confused. You want the government to stay out of people's lives, yet you readily dive into this level. You believe in gun ownership and the right to kill people in self-defense (even feigned) and you believe in the death penalty. You're hawkish and very ready to kill non-Americans (and even some threatening Americans.) I'm confused. Are you FOR killing people, or are you AGAINST killing people? Your message seems very inconsistent and scattershot. START LEGISLATING IMPORTANT THINGS. MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS WHEN IT COMES TO A WOMAN'S BODY. I'm old enough to remember pre Rove. I myself was forced to carry a fetus that stopped developing at six weeks. No one would do a D & C. At 4 months, I began to hemorrhage. Finally, the doctor had no choice, do the D & C or let me bleed to death. It shouldn't have to be this way. I had two small children, 4 and 2. They needed their mother and I so easily could have died. It's just senseless to go back to those days.

—Sandie Reed, Esparto, CA

Please do not ban abortion or more women will die trying once passed.

—Adria Hendrickson, Denver, CO

1). Last time I checked Roe vs. Wade had not been overturned, 2). Do you all have MD licenses? Last time I checked it was against the law to practice medicine with out a license. These decisions are best left to the DOCTOR and his/her patient, and 3) It is not acceptable for you to force your religious views on the rest of us. I am sure that there are other issues in Colorado that need your urgent attention and controlling women's reproduction is NOT one of them.

This has no place in Colorado!

Tell Colorado legislators: NO on the abortion ban bill

Page 20 of 20

The most desperate of women with unplanned pregnancies-teens, rape victims, women of impoverished families who can't afford birth control-these are the people you will affect most directly by banning abortions in Colorado. Colorado has now moved to 21 from 22 out of 50 states of highest level of children in poverty (Annie E. Casey Foundation). Women were dying of attempted self or back alley abortions before Roe v Wade. Do you want a woman to determine your reproductive rights? Women who are in dire circumstances will find a way to stop their pregnancy and risk their own lives. Are you ready to have these deaths on your hands?

—Marsha Miller, Denver, CO

Children should be born to those who are ready for a family!

—Patrice L. Boyd, Pitkin, CO

Politicians should stop playing politics with women's health. Insure that women have full access to health care and birth control, instead of interfering with personal decisions around health care. No one would ever think of interfering with men's choices and decisions.

—M.R. Swenson Swenson, Denver, CO

It's time for the Government, and particularly the Republican party to STOP trying to control a woman's body and the choices she makes. Gone are the days of silent intimidation.

—Karen Baldwin, Wheat Ridge, CO

Please allow my rights to not be infringed upon and keep my choices MINE

—Charlotte Utigard, Littleton, CO

This is just disturbing.

—James Harmon, Denver, CO

Stay out of the relationship that I have with my medical professionals and do not let abortion go under ground. If you truly care for women you will let abortion be accessible and safe. We should focus on reducing abortions through comprehensive work. Thank you!

—Maria Fenwick, Littleton, CO

I have taken care of a 17 year old girl who died because of a botched coat hanger abortion before Roe Vs Wade

—Amy Teufert, Evergreen, CO

Send these abortion ban fanatics to Russia, where there may be many other like-minded religious zealots to nosh with.

—Ron Standley, Larkspur, CO

Leave womens health care decisions to themselves!

—Julie Ellen Gelpke, Pittsburg, KS

Taking a woman's right to choose a safe, legal abortion, ESPECIALLY in cases of rape and incest where she has ALREADY been stripped of her right to choose, is barbaric, backwards and wrong. I'm a native Colorado resident who stands for the rights of women, and a woman's right to chose. I do NOT want to see this bill pass today's committee. Kill the bill.
