EXECUTIVE ORDER
PROCLAMATION
CALL FOR THE FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION
OF THE SIXTY-FIFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

7 Pursuant to the authority vested in the Office of the Governor of the State of 8 Colorado, and in particular vested in the Governor pursuant to Article IV, 9 Section 9 of the Colorado Constitution, and as provided for in Article V, 10 Section 7, I, Bill Owens, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby find that the 11 following extraordinary occasions exist to convene the Sixty-Fifth General 12 Assembly to meet in special session.

13
14 I. Background and Need

15
16 A. Immigration

17
18 Colorado, like every state in the nation, must confront the increasing challenges 19 related to illegal immigration. Illegal immigration has an economic, social and 20 demographic impact on Colorado. It is estimated that approximately 250,000 21 undocumented aliens reside and work in the State of Colorado, while 22 approximately ten to fifteen million undocumented aliens presently live and 23 work in the United States. Illegal immigration is an issue that crosses state lines 24 and must be addressed by the federal government, however, the State of 25 Colorado must take measures to respond to Colorado's dramatically increasing 26 illegal immigrant population.

27
28 1. Prohibiting State Funds for Illegal Immigrants

29
30 Federal law prohibits illegal immigrants from receiving tax-funded services, 31 with some specific exceptions. However, the increasing number of illegal 32 immigrants in Colorado, along with the increased costs to the State of Colorado, 33 necessitates further legislation to address the issue. The State of Colorado 34 should ensure that only those persons eligible are able to receive state funded 35 services. Colorado must enact a law which prohibits the use of state funds for 36 illegal immigrants at both the state and local level, except as necessary for 37 emergency services, including pre-natal care, and K-12 public education, as 38 mandated by federal law.

39
40 2. Employer Verification

41
42 Employers currently have a financial incentive to hire undocumented illegal 43 immigrants as these workers traditionally accept lower wages. At the same 44 time, employers currently have little legal incentive to ensure the employees 45 they hire may lawfully work in this country. Employers who hire undocumented 46 illegal immigrants perpetuate the flow of illegal immigrants to this state while 47 the vast majority of employers who act according to the law are therefore at a 48 disadvantage.

49
50 Employers now have effective tools readily available to validate an employee's 51 status. For instance, several federal databases allow employers to verify the 52 validity of identifying information used to gain employment. These services are 53 free of charge or are available at a minimal fee. With these new tools, 54 employers should be held to a higher standard of accountability by being 55 required to take reasonable measures to validate the lawful work status of its 56 employees.

1 I believe that significant fines should be levied against these employers who 2 submit false or fraudulent documentation to the state, including I-9 forms and 3 social security numbers, without taking reasonable measures to validate such 4 information prior to submission. I believe that employers should accept this 5 relatively simple step of taking reasonable measures to validate the lawful work 6 status of its employees.

7
8 To ensure employers abide by this law, the state must have resources necessary 9 to investigate and issue fines on violating employers. Such a measure would 10 greatly reduce the use of fraudulent documents to illegally obtain employment 11 within the State of Colorado.

12 13 3. Prohibiting Tax Benefits for Employers Hiring Illegal Immigrants

14
15 Additional state measures can be taken to ensure private employers do not 16 employ undocumented illegal immigrants. In that regard, the State of Colorado 17 should not allow employers who hire illegal immigrants to use any of the 18 unauthorized employees' wages as a deductible business expense. The State of 19 Colorado should require a six percent withholding tax on compensation paid to 20 an employee whose compensation is reported on a Form 1099 where that 21 employee has failed to provide a valid taxpayer identification number. Both 22 laws should be effective July 1, 2007. These measures are similar to the 23 recently enacted Georgia Security and Immigration Compliance Act, Georgia 24 Senate Bill 529.

25 26 4. Proof of Citizenship to Register to Vote and to Vote

27
28 Verifiable identification is required of citizens to drive a vehicle, board an 29 airplane, or cash a check. These are privileges in which it is critical to confirm 30 the individual's identity through a verifiable identification process. Voting is 31 the most valuable privilege we have as U.S. citizens and yet our state law 32 invites fraudulent activity by allowing people to vote without presenting a basic 33 form of identification. Currently, an individual can present a utility bill, a bank 34 statement, a government check, or even a paycheck to register to vote and to 35 vote. The State of Colorado lends itself to such fraudulent voting by not 36 requiring actual verifiable identification to ensure the individual is a citizen of 37 this state and this country.

38
39 The State of Colorado has developed a comprehensive system for ensuring 40 driver's license and government issued identification are only granted to 41 persons who can prove their identity and citizenship through verifiable 42 identification. C.R.S. § 42-2-108 and C.R.S. § 42-2-302 requires applicants to 43 present two forms of identification in order to be issued a state drivers license 44 or identification. While the list of documentation that can be presented is 45 extensive, this process confirms the individual's identity and citizenship.

46
47 Colorado has developed a proven system for confirming identity and citizenship 48 through the process of issuing driver's licenses and government identifications.
49 This same system should be adopted as a requirement to register to vote and to 50 vote. In order to register to vote and to vote, Colorado should require each 51 individual to present a state issued driver's license or require the same form of 52 identification required to obtain a driver's license. This simple measure would 53 confirm that only lawful citizens vote.

54
55

1           5. Strengthening Human Trafficking laws

2
3 The human trafficking legislation the General Assembly passed in 2006 was a 4 good first step. However, more can be done to protect vulnerable people from 5 involuntary servitude. Recently, a case went to trial in Colorado where a couple 6 allegedly kept an immigrant woman as a prisoner in their home, forcing her to 7 work for them without compensation. Strengthening our laws against such 8 inhumane practice will help prevent future occurrences and ensure perpetrators 9 are severely punished.

10
11 The state legislature should consider measures to strengthen human trafficking 12 laws by criminalizing involuntary servitude, forbidding forced labor or services 13 by threatening the destruction of immigration documents, and making the act 14 of threatening an individual with reporting illegal status to officials for the 15 purpose of extorting money a felony.

16
17           6. Referred Measure for Statewide Vote of the People

18
19 One important step in this debate was a citizen proposed ballot initiative 20 (“Initiative #55”) to be placed on the November 2006 ballot that would have 21 asked voters to decide whether state and local governments should provide non-22 emergency services to illegal immigrants. However, the Colorado Supreme 23 Court precluded the citizens from deciding on this issue by issuing an 24 unprecedented ruling that Initiative #55 violated the single subject requirement 25 of the Colorado Constitution. The Supreme Court unilaterally prohibited 26 Colorado citizens from having this debate and precluded the proponents from 27 fixing the alleged technical deficiency.

28
29 If the state legislature fails to pass substantive illegal immigration reform 30 statutes, the legislature should pass a referred measure that prohibits state and 31 local governments from providing services to illegal immigrants, except as 32 mandated by federal law. If the people’s representatives cannot act on this 33 issue, they must allow the people of Colorado to have this debate. While 34 Colorado citizens may ultimately determine that this law is unnecessary this 35 issue itself deserves public debate and a public vote this November.

36
37           B. Colorado Supreme Court Timeline

38 39 Colorado Revised Statute §1-40-107, governs the appeal process arising when 40 there is a challenge to a citizen proposed ballot initiative. The law requires the 41 Supreme Court to “promptly” rule on the matter “consistent with the rights of 42 the parties.” In the action pertaining to Initiative #55, the Supreme Court took 43 an unprecedented amount of time to render their ruling. Petitioners in this 44 matter first filed their appeal with the Supreme Court in January 2006. The 45 matter was fully briefed and before the Supreme Court on March 17, 2006.
46 However, the Supreme Court did not issue an opinion on this matter until June 47 13, 2006, well after the deadline for the proponents of the initiative to attempt 48 to remedy the alleged defects found by the Supreme Court.

49
50 Matters concerning citizen proposed ballot initiatives are of significant 51 importance in Colorado. The legislative declaration concerning referendums 52 and initiatives states that the purpose of the statutes is to “properly safeguard, 53 protect, and preserve...these modern instrumentalities of democratic 54 government.” By placing a specific timeline on the Supreme Court, citizens can 55 work with an objective and predictable timeline and plan for time to cure 56 adverse technical rulings on an initiative. I suggest amending C.R.S.

1 §1-40-107(2) by changing the word “promptly” to “within thirty days.”

2

3 The public has a right to a predictable timeline on these matters.

4

5 C. Common Law Marriage

6

7 Colorado is one of ten states that recognizes the validity of common law 8 marriage. Common law marriage is a term used to describe a marriage which 9 has not complied with statutory requirements necessary for a ceremonial 10 marriage. A common law marriage may be established in Colorado as long as 11 the persons are free to enter into a marriage, each person consents to the 12 marriage, and the parties cohabit.

13

14 The Colorado Court of Appeals recently issued a decision concerning common 15 law marriage in Colorado. In In re Marriage of J.M.H., (Colo. App. 2006), the 16 Court of Appeals concluded that the age of consent for a common law marriage 17 is age fourteen for males and age twelve for females.

18

19 Colorado must change its statutes regarding this issue. This ruling could be used 20 as a defense for adult perpetrators who violate young children. In addition, this 21 ruling creates conflicts in Colorado law. For instance, in Colorado a person can 22 be convicted of statutory rape if the victim is fourteen years of age and the 23 perpetrator is four years older. Consent is not a defense to statutory rape.
24 Furthermore, in Colorado the Uniform Marriage Act establishes that the 25 statutory age of consent for marriage is eighteen. C.R.S. §14-2-106. Persons 26 between sixteen and eighteen years of age may marry if they obtain parental 27 consent or judicial approval. C.R.S. §14-2-106, 108. This issue must be 28 resolved for public safety and uniformity within state law.

29

30 The legislature should consider whether Colorado law should continue to 31 acknowledge common law marriage. At a minimum, the age requirements for 32 a valid common law marriage should mirror the age requirements contained in 33 the Uniform Marriage Act.

34
