

Adams County wishes to ensure that the brave men, women and families of our armed forces who reside in Adams County are provided with the services and assistance they need. We realize that serving in the armed forces can present unique challenges to families, especially to those with family members who are currently serving or have in the past served overseas.

The Adams County Military Family Assistance Program is a partnership between the Adams County Social Services Department and Family Tree, Inc. For more information or to apply for the program, contact:
