Requires the employee to provide the employer with at least 3 days' notice of the leave except in emergency situations where the employee is not aware of the need for leave 3 days in advance. Directs employees to make reasonable attempts to schedule conferences or other activities outside of regular work hours.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds, determines, and declares that the involvement of parents and 4 legal guardians in school-sponsored academic activities is critical to the 5 successful education of Colorado's children. The general assembly 6 acknowledges and commends those employers that have policies and 7 procedures in place to allow their employees time off from work to attend 8 a child's academic activities, thereby fostering parental involvement in 9 their child's education. However, in some cases, parents and legal 10 guardians who have children enrolled in public or private school or in a 11 nonpublic home-based educational program pursuant to section
12 22-33-104.5, C.R.S., may be unaware of the total education their children
13 are receiving because the parents or guardians are unable to take time off 14 from work to attend a child's academic activities. Therefore, the general 15 assembly finds, determines, and declares that the enactment of provisions 16 to allow a parent or guardian to attend a child's academic activities 17 without fear of jeopardizing the parent's or guardian's employment will 18 enhance the success of the child in school and ultimately as a citizen of 19 this state.

1 (2) The general assembly also finds, determines, and declares that 2 the participation of parents and legal guardians in their children's school
3 activities is an important element in fostering a productive and positive
4 relationship between family and school. Such participation creates a 5 supportive academic environment for children as well as for educators.
6 In such an environment, the educators can communicate more frequently 7 with parents and guardians about issues that affect their children, which 8 strengthens the bonds between the school and the parents or legal 9 guardians and enhances the quality of education obtained by each student.
