

Proposed Constitutional Amendment for the State of Colorado
To Authorize the Establishment of Banks Owned by Political Subdivisions of the State
To Be Numbered as Article X, Section 23

WHEREAS, since 1919 the People of North Dakota have owned and benefited from the successful operation of the Bank of North Dakota, the specific purpose of which has been to provide an in-state repository for the holding, management and distribution of the fees and taxes collected from the operation of the government of North Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, the Bank of North Dakota is limited in its scope and purpose to: administer bank charters and audits, make funds available for state, city and county government operations, to benefit the People and communities of North Dakota, and to provide correspondent banking services for chartered members,

WHEREAS, the Bank of North Dakota is prohibited from competing in the private sector with privately-owned banks also operating in North Dakota under state or federal charter; and,

WHEREAS, the People of North Dakota have significantly benefited from the Bank of North Dakota which has paid the state treasurer more than $325 million from bank profits over the past ten years; and,

WHEREAS, the Bank of North Dakota is attributed with being the cause for the North Dakota economy topping the list of state economies year after year, and with being the only State that has had a continuous budget surplus since before the financial crisis of 2008; and while the rest of America has been enduring a recession, the state of North Dakota has enjoyed the largest budget surplus in its history; and

WHEREAS, the Bank of North Dakota is attributed with being the cause why in 2011 the People of North Dakota saw almost $500 million returned to them in income and property tax cuts and will enjoy a 30% decrease in tax liability when combining 2009-2011 tax cuts; and

WHEREAS, the Bank of North Dakota is attributed with being the cause why North Dakota has the lowest foreclosure rate, the lowest credit card default rate, and the lowest unemployment rate of any State (3.3%) in the nation; and,

WHEREAS, banks in the state of Colorado are failing at a rate five times greater than banks in other parts of the United States; and,

WHEREAS, Small businesses in the state of Colorado have experienced great difficulties in obtaining necessary capital as a result of the recession that began in 2008 and which result from the monetary policies of the national banking system under the control of the Federal Reserve

System; and

WHEREAS, The bank of North Dakota consolidates the handling of all state funds, while in Colorado various economic development and home ownership programs have limited authority, which may be more efficient if consolidated within one agency;

WHEREAS, the above principles, positive results, and financial benefits as exemplified by the Bank of North Dakota may be applied by and are applicable to a bank formed by a political subdivisions of a state such as a county or city:

THEREFORE, be it enacted as Article X, Section 23 of the Colorado Constitution:

Any county, municipality, or political subdivision of the state may engage in banking or establish a bank, and may lend money at interest to promote development and enterprise in the state, to promote any purpose authorized by the laws governing such political subdivision. Any such bank shall have the same powers and authority of other banks chartered by the State of Colorado, except as limited by the legally established purposes of the government of the political subdivision. The revenue, income, and assets of such a bank shall not be limited, nor shall expenditures and management of its revenue, income, and assets be restricted except upon sound financial and public policy considerations. All provisions of this section are self-executing and severable and supersede any conflicting state constitutional, state statutory, charter, or other state or local provisions.

Governance of Banks Established by Statutory Municipalities: In the event a statutory municipality of the state establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of the Mayor, the Municipal Attorney, and the Municipal Auditor. The capitalization of such bank may include all revenues, funds, and other assets of the municipality that would normally be deposited or held in a financial institution or designated as collateral by a financial institution.

Governance of Banks Established by Statutory Counties: In the event a statutory county of the state establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of the Chief County Commissioner, the District Attorney, and the County Auditor. The capitalization of such bank may include all revenues, funds, and other assets of the county that would normally be deposited or held in a financial institution or designated as collateral by a financial institution.

Governance of Banks Established by Home Rule Municipalities: In the event a home rule municipality establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of at least three elected officials, to consist of the chief executive officer of said municipality (the mayor or equivalent) and two others to be determined by the enabling legislation.

Governance of Banks Established by Home Rule Counties: In the event a home rule county establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of at least three elected officials, to be determined by the enabling legislation.

Governance of Banks Established by Political Subdivisions other than Cities and/or Counties: In the event a political subdivision that is not a municipality or county establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of at least three elected officials, to be determined by the enabling legislation.

Governance of Banks Established by Political Subdivisions that are both a City and a County: In the event a political subdivision that is both a city and a county establishes a bank, its board of directors shall consist of at least three elected officials, to be determined by the enabling legislation.

Capitalization of Banks Established by any political subdivisions: Banks established by statutory municipalities, statutory counties, home rule municipalities, home rule counties, political subdivisions of the state other than cities and/or counties, and political subdivisions that are both a city and a county may be capitalized by the same means available to banks that are privately owned, owned by publicly held corporations, chartered by this state or the United States. Such means may include bonds, tax revenues, funds, and other assets of the political subdivision so designated for this purpose.
