32

33 Majority Leader Weissmann, Minority Leader May, members of the Colorado
34 General Assembly, and distinguished guests, welcome to the opening of the 35 First Regular Session of the 67th General Assembly.

37 I am honored and humbled to lead this chamber as its 34th speaker, and thank 38 you all for your support.

40 I also want to thank the people of Colorado, who this November elected or 41 reelected 65 members to the House of Representatives to govern our state.

43 The people of Colorado have granted all of us a unique opportunity at a critical
44 time in history.

46 Of the 65 members of the Colorado House of Representatives, 17 of you took 47 the oath of office for the first time today.

49 I want to congratulate each of the following new members on their election:
50 Cindy Acree, Dennis Apuan, Randy Baumgardner, Laura Bradford, Lois Court,
51 Cheri Gerou, Dickey Lee Hullinghorst, Beth McCann, Joe Miklosi, Carole
52 Murray, Sal Pace, Kevin Priola, Su Ryden, Sue Schafer, Scott Tipton, Ed Vigil
53 and Mark Waller.

54

55 I also want to recognize a few special guests who have joined us in the chamber
56 today, many of whom are former members of the House.

1 The Honorable Rosemary Marshall who I served with for 6 wonderful years is
2 here today, as are the Honorable – or should I say Honorables – Wilma and 3 Wellington Webb, the Honorable Gloria Tanner, the Honorable Regis Groff, the 4 Honorable Michael Hancock and the Honorable Penfield Tate III. Please join
5 me now in welcoming these men and women, all of which have been dedicated 6 public servants and wonderful friends.

7
8 And I want to thank Mrs. Mary Louise Lee for her rousing version of the Star
9 Spangled Banner and Lift Every Voice and Sing.

11 I also want to honor the memory of two giants of this chamber on whose 12 shoulders I stand:

14 The late Ari P. Taylor and the late Sam Williams.

15
16 Finally, I would be remiss if I did not single out the service of two departing
17 members of this chamber.

19 Speaker Andrew Romanoff and Majority Leader Alice Madden led our caucus
20 for five years and our chamber for four, working tirelessly to move this state
21 forward.

23 When they began their tenures, the state had been ravaged by one of the worst 24 budget crises in our history.

26 Today, due in no small part to their efforts, 18,000 more students can afford the 27 opportunity to go to college;

29 20,000 more kids have the chance to go to preschool and kindergarten; 50,000
30 more Colorado children will be able to get the health care they need;

31
32 And every Colorado consumer has access to the clean energy technologies of 33 tomorrow.

35 Both parties, and indeed the entire state, benefited from Andrew Romanoff and 36 Alice Madden's capacity to consider various – and at time competing – 37 viewpoints.

39 Their thoughtful management of this chamber translated into transformative
40 policies that have benefited all of Colorado.

41
42 Please join me now in thanking them both for their years of service.

43
44 Opportunity

45
46 The 65 of you in this room elected to the 67th General Assembly come from 47 many different walks of life.

49 Standing with us today are teachers, doctors, lawyers, farmers, ranchers, 50 businessmen and women, members of the armed services and veterans who 51 have risked their lives for our freedom.

53 We have mothers, fathers, grandmothers and grandfathers. We have folks from 54 big cities and small towns, the eastern plains and the western slope, blacks,
55 whites, Hispanics, and pacific islanders.

1 We have third and fourth generation Coloradans, others born out of state, and
2 some of you who were even born abroad.
4 We have liberals, moderates, and conservatives.
5
6 We, members, represent the diverse fabric of Colorado's community.
7
8 A patchwork of unique and wonderful biographies that together make Colorado,
9 like America, different and more magnificent than other societies in history.
10
11 But that patchwork alone does not make this country great.
12
13 What makes America great is that the fabric of our community is sewn together
14 by a single thread.
16 That thread is called opportunity.
17
18 My mother – the daughter of a sharecropper and the granddaughter of a slave
19 – taught me the importance of opportunity.
21 She taught me that lesson even though her formal education did not extend 22 beyond the third grade.
24 She was 51 years old when I was born – she would have turned 90 this year, if 25 she were still with us.
27 I was her only child, and she raised me alone, in Anacostia, one of the toughest
28 neighborhoods in one of the toughest towns in America: Washington D.C.
29
30 Growing up, our nickname for the neighborhood was Dodge City.
31
32 In my neighborhood, young black men were expected to be nothing more than 33 a number on a police blotter.
35 My mother, a woman of unconditional love and unbounded grace, understood
36 that my only way out of the neighborhood was to capitalize on each
37 opportunity, which came first in the form of a free public education.
38
39 It is a small coincidence that this woman shared her sentiment about the 40 importance of education as a singular opportunity, with the complicated
41 statesman Thomas Jefferson;
42
43 Jefferson, a man who himself owned hundreds of slaves during his life,
44 understood the American spirit was characterized by two fundamental traits;
45
46 In a letter to a friend, Jefferson summarized them beautifully, writing:
47
48 “While an honest heart is the first blessing, a knowing head is the second.”
49
50 Jefferson recognized early on that the American experiment would be defined
51 over its history by evolving popular sovereignty.
52
53 But he also recognized Republicanism, and later, Democracy, were merely 54 means toward a greater end;
56 The end itself was creating opportunity where none existed before.

1 Despite our imperfect history, today Jefferson's America is a place where a
2 child of modest means, of either sex, and of any race can succeed if presented
3 with the right opportunities.
4
5 America cares not where you came from but only where you want to go.
6
7 But for America to continue to flourish, we must be diligent in our work to 8 preserve existing opportunities that are the engines of prosperity and offer new 9 opportunities where none existed before.
11 I know Colorado is a place where informed leaders still believe our promise is 12 not yet fulfilled, and won't be until each child has the opportunity to realize his 13 or her full potential, each hardworking Coloradan has the opportunity to find a 14 job, raise a family, and retire with security and dignity.
16 I offer that our principal charge should be to continue to expand the circle of 17 opportunity, so that every single Coloradan may have a genuine chance to 18 succeed.
20 The Present State of Things
21
22 Our task comes at a unique time.
23
24 The world we live in today seems less secure than the world we inhabited just 25 a short time ago. The state and the nation face a bleak economic outlook. More
26 Coloradans are losing their jobs, the price of energy continues to fluctuate 27 wildly, spending and consumer confidence are down.
28
29 And while Colorado, with its diversified economy and well-trained workforce,
30 has fared better than the country as a whole, we are not immune to those forces
31 driving the downturn.
33 We've already seen firsthand how a global crisis affects us locally;
34
35 A bank failure in Milan, Italy, can hurt a cattle rancher in Meeker. Plant
36 closings in Detroit can mean layoffs in Denver.
37
38 As the recession worsens, what was once a quiet crisis is now loud, and 39 threatens to become deafening.
40
41 In these difficult times, Americans have sent a clear message to their political 42 leaders: we don't care where you come from, what color your skin is, or what 43 party you belong to. We care only how you can move us forward.
45 The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King once said, "[the ultimate measure of a 46 man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where 47 he stands at times of challenge and controversy."
48
49 Members, the road ahead is besieged with challenges and controversy.
50
51 Our response should not be panic or haste, but instead sound judgment, a steady
52 hand, and an unflinching commitment to this great state.
53
54 And as we tackle a weakening economy and difficult budget choices, let us 55 never take our eyes off of our greater purpose; to expand the circle of 56 opportunity in Colorado.

1 May we all measure up to that task.

2

3 Our Agenda

4

5 Today, I ask each of you, the members of the Colorado House of
6 Representatives, to work together toward achieving three common goals to help
7 expand opportunity:

8

- 9 • First, to bring new, high-paying jobs to Colorado
- 10 • Second, to provide support for struggling families
- 11 • And finally, to build a world class public education system

13 To meet these goals, I ask that we make an honest attempt to set aside our 14 partisan differences, to look past ideological extremes, and to search for 15 common ground.

17 And while we will demonstrate bold but pragmatic leadership, we must also 18 remember that no single leader, political party or interest group has a monopoly
19 on good ideas.

21 Jobs

22

23 Job one this legislative term is to bring new jobs to Colorado.

24

25 That's why this November, Senate President Groff and I created the bi-partisan
26 Committee on Job Creation and Economic Growth.

28 Together, we tasked that committee with crafting real solutions to bring new 29 jobs to Colorado right now and to help get our economy back on track.

30

31 The 10 members of that committee have already met half a dozen times and are 32 soliciting ideas from business pioneers, civic leaders and individuals from 33 across the state.

35 I want to thank our 5 House members for working so hard over the last two 36 months: Representative Joe Rice, Representative Buffie McFadyen,
37 Representative Solano, Representative David Balmer, and Representative Larry 38 Liston.

39

40 We look forward to hearing your committee's recommendations.

41

42 But the magnitude of this crisis compels us to act immediately. Already, a 43 number of promising ideas have come forward.

45 Colorado's businesses, especially our small businesses, are the engine of our 46 economy and the source of many of this state's jobs.

48 Today we will introduce legislation sponsored by Representative Joe Rice to 49 provide a new Colorado Jobs Tax Credit to companies that bring good, high
50 paying jobs to our state.

52 Over the last 6 months, we've seen many small businesses struggle to keep their 53 doors open because they can't borrow the money they need to pay the bills. To 54 continue growing, those businesses need access to capital and credit.

56 So this year we will revive the Colorado Credit Reserve Program.

1 With a small guarantee from the state, the program will encourage lenders to
2 loan as much as $50 million to Colorado small businesses so they can stay
3 afloat during this difficult period. Thank you to Representative Sara Gagliardi,
4 Representative Don Marostica, and the Governor's Office of Economic
5 Development for their hard work on this issue.

7 It's no secret that Colorado's roads and bridges need attention. Today,
8 Colorado has 126 structurally deficient bridges and thousands of miles of roads
9 that need work. We have $1.2 billion in shovel-ready road projects waiting for 10 dollars and workers to arrive.

12 And we have thousands of contractors, engineers, and construction workers
13 sitting at home without jobs.

15 Our current transportation funding system has failed to provide the dollars to 16 get those shovels moving and get people back to work.

18 Over the next few weeks, we must work with Governor Ritter and our 19 delegation in Congress, to make sure we get the federal funding we need to start
20 bringing new jobs to Colorado to fix our crumbling roads and broken bridges
21 by this summer.

23 But our work cannot stop there. We must pursue a long term, sustainable 24 funding solution that continues to create jobs year in and year out and maintains 25 safe roads and bridges.

27 We want to create an economy where the best jobs and most innovative 28 companies are housed right here in Colorado. We should continue to invest in 29 our clean energy economy and the other high tech industries that are bringing 30 new companies with them, new green collar jobs to Colorado.

32 We know our recent work is already paying off: in just the last two years,
33 we've seen the creation of 22,000 high-paying New Energy jobs.

35 I look forward to working with Representatives Judy Solano, Andy Kerr, 36 Michael Merrifield and others on a variety of innovative proposals that will 37 continue to expand the market for solar and wind energy by removing barriers
38 and making clean energy more accessible to homes, schools, and businesses.

40 And, with the help of Representative Jim Riesberg, we will continue to invest
41 in our promising bioscience industry to convince small, high-tech companies
42 make Colorado their home.

44 Finally, to attract companies that will be profitable tomorrow to locate in 45 Colorado today, we must train a workforce with the skills they need to compete
46 for these high paying jobs.

48 So with the assistance of Representatives Nancy Todd and Ed Vigil, we will
49 expand our job training programs at Colorado's community colleges, with a
50 special emphasis on preparing our labor force to tackle the good green collar
51 jobs that are on their way.

53 Struggling families

54
55 Unfortunately, more Colorado families are struggling financially today than at 56 any other time in recent memory.

1 And while we've made recent gains – expanding access to health care for
2 50,000 kids; supporting more students so they can afford college; and helping 3 our poorest families cover their energy bills – the ebb of the economic tide is 4 dragging many Colorado families backwards.
5
6 My mother used to say, “Help people a little bit, point them in the right
7 direction, and they will take care of the rest.”
8
9 That's why this year, we pledge to continue assisting Coloradans at the margins,
10 particularly those being hit hardest by the economic slowdown – children,
11 middle-class families, and older Coloradans, so that they too may know the 12 good fortune of opportunity.
14 There is a challenging paradox in government:
15
16 As the need for services increases with a recession, actual revenues tend to 17 decrease.
18
19 This year we will be faced with tough decisions about how to trim an already 20 lean budget. Though I cannot say today exactly how much we will need to cut,
21 or where the cuts should come from, I will say this:
22
23 We will spend only what we can afford.
24
25 We will balance the budget.
26
27 We will put our money where our values are.
28
29 We will do everything in our power to preserve the critical services that create 30 opportunity: for children to get an education; for struggling families to go to the 31 doctor when they are sick; for the unemployed to stay afloat while they search
32 for their next job, and for Colorado families trying to protect their American 33 Dream.
34
35 More than 16,000 Colorado homeowners are now in foreclosure. And close to 36 6,000 families are on the brink. When Coloradans lose their homes, a 37 breadwinner is more likely to lose his or her job, a child is less likely to 38 graduate from high school, and families are more likely to slip into poverty.
39
40 Keeping families in their homes provides a substantial benefit to all of us. It
41 reduces pressure on our government safety net and it helps maintain home
42 values so that our neighborhoods can thrive. And when Coloradans restructure 43 their debt so they are able to pay back their loans, it ensures banks can keep 44 lending to the next homeowner and the next small business entrepreneur.
45
46 So this year, I welcome the legislation authored by Representative Mark
47 Ferrandino that will offer those Coloradans facing foreclosure a “temporary 48 timeout;” a little extra time to work with their lenders to save their homes.
49
50 Sadly, home buying remains only a dream for far too many Coloradans,
51 especially those facing the specter of poverty.
52
53 In these difficult times, more Coloradans find themselves living paycheck to 54 paycheck. And no one is more impacted by the evolving economic reality than 55 our kids.
56

1 This decade, the percentage of Colorado children living in poverty has risen
2 eighty-five percent! That's one of the highest increases in the entire country.
3 And that is unacceptable! Reducing poverty is absolutely essential to building
4 a strong, 21st century economy that works for everyone.

5
6 That is why this year, State Representative John Kefalas will introduce an
7 ambitious plan creating a framework to expand opportunity and reduce poverty
8 significantly over the next ten years. Called the Economic Opportunity Task
9 Force, the body will be charged with developing a strategic, integrated and 10 comprehensive plan to help lift families out of poverty.

12 Education

13
14 The most important opportunity that government provides is a free public
15 education to every child that wants one. But this opportunity afforded our kids 16 is only as good as the quality of the education they receive.

18 Unfortunately, when our schools fail, our students fail too. Today, too many of 19 our students drop out of school before graduation. Those who dropout are more
20 likely to commit a crime. They have a harder time finding a job. They are 21 more likely to become a teen mom or a teen dad. And they're more likely to 22 struggle with addiction.

24 During the past few years, we've committed to reducing the dropout rate, and 25 taken the first necessary steps toward achieving that goal.

26
27 We've expanded access to early childhood education, and we've worked to lay
28 the foundation for a comprehensive kindergarten through college curriculum
29 that prepares all our kids for the future.

31 But that's not enough. Representative Karen Middleton is introducing
32 legislation to create an Office of Dropout Prevention and Student
33 Reengagement, to make sure that students complete their high school studies, 34 and are ready to take the next step, whatever that step may be.

36 And Representative Debbie Benefield is unveiling a plan intended to make sure 37 that every child, regardless of their race, where they live, or what their 38 socioeconomic background is, has access to a high-quality teacher.

40 And finally, Representative Michael Merrifield is introducing legislation to 41 make it easier for high school students to have access to the college and 42 technical training they need to get good, high-paying jobs.

44 But student engagement also requires parental engagement.

45
46 When parents are engaged, when they track their child's performance, and keep 47 close contact with their teachers, their child is more likely to succeed.
48 Unfortunately, many parents simply can't get enough time away from their job
49 to help their children become effective learners.

50
51 I hope this year that this body will pass legislation from Representative Andy
52 Kerr that allows parents to take a limited amount of unpaid leave to step away
53 from work to attend school meetings for their children without worrying about 54 losing their jobs.

55

1 Conclusion

2

3 Coloradans have weathered previous storms because we recognize opportunity 4 and don't let it pass us by.

5

6 Perhaps no one in Colorado history had a better appreciation of the significance
7 of opportunity than Barney Ford – the man whose image watches over this 8 chamber.

10 Born a slave in Virginia, Ford escaped servitude by way of the Underground
11 Railroad when he was still a young man.

13 Once in Colorado, he capitalized on the opportunities provided to him by the 14 New West. He became a successful gold prospector, hotelier, and landowner.
15 But his influence extended well beyond his business achievements.

17 Ford recognized what Martin Luther King later said, that the real measure of a 18 man is where he stands in times of challenge and controversy times.

20 He led successful efforts to hold up Colorado's bid for statehood until black
21 suffrage was constitutionally secured. And he founded the first adult education 22 program in the state, where men and women – many freed slaves newly-
23 emigrated from the South – got their very first opportunity.

24

25 Barney Ford saw that Colorado was a place where opportunity knows no
26 bounds. A place where hard work, a willingness to take a risk, and personal 27 sacrifice can lead to a better life.

28

29 The task before us is to ensure that opportunity is available to this generation
30 of Coloradans and the next. And while the path to prosperity will be 31 challenging, and at times fraught with controversy, our journey must be 32 successful.

34 We cannot travel this path alone. We must lock arms and walk together toward 35 a future for this great state where every child has the opportunity to get a quality
36 education; to go to a great college; to find a good job; to raise a healthy family;
37 and to live a decent life.

38

39 I look forward to our journey together.

40

41 Thank you and God bless you.

42

44 Representative May delivered the following address to the members of 45 the Colorado House of Representatives:

47 Mr. Speaker, Mr. Majority Leader, esteemed colleagues and honored guests, 48 welcome!

49

50 As there is much work to be done, my comments here will be brief.

51

52 Actually, as most of you know, as recently as a few weeks ago, I wasn't
53 planning to be here this session, so I didn't have a great deal of time to write a 54 lengthy speech. However, as my good friend John Lennon said: "Life is what 55 happens while you're busy making other plans."

56

1 So here I am back amongst all my rowdy friends. And we certainly have a lot
2 of work to do!

4 First, I need to say a special thank you to my wife Traci, who is here today. I
5 want to acknowledge the personal sacrifice that she and my family have made
6 for me to serve with you here in this body. All of our families make sacrifices
7 for us to be here, so please, colleagues stand with me now to show them how 8 grateful we are for their support.

10 Years ago I had a sign on my office wall that read "There are no problems, only 11 opportunities to succeed." My friends, our opportunity to succeed is unmatched 12 by those in recent times.

14 As a nation and a state, we are facing perhaps the most challenging economic 15 crisis in more than a generation.

17 Colorado families are struggling, and they're worried. They are concerned about 18 our financial markets and their retirement funds, about keeping their jobs and 19 their homes, and about educating and caring for their children.

21 As Coloradans, we are an adventurous and tough-minded group. The problems
22 we've solved in the past were often difficult and complex. But, we roll up our 23 shirtsleeves and we get the job done.

25 We will need this spirit of the west -the tireless and rugged courage that settled
26 our state - to move beyond the problems that stare us coldly in the face today.

27
28 This session, we must succeed.

29
30 Budget

31
32 Like the budgets of many Colorado families, income levels aren't keeping up
33 with expenses. And just like Colorado families, the state will need to tighten its 34 belt a notch or two to adjust.

36 Certainly there will be those who will be unhappy with the choices we must 37 make - perhaps even some in this room. But we have an obligation to live 38 within our means, and to do that this year will be more difficult than it has been 39 in the past.

40
41 Now, more than ever, it is apparent that the state should have been more fiscally
42 responsible: We should have created a rainy day fund. When the sun was 43 shining, we did not set aside money. Now, when it is raining, there is no money
44 to set aside. But that doesn't mean we can't set the stage for better days. Now 45 is the time to create the structure for future savings, to take the responsible 46 course.

48 And while we plan for the future, we must address today's budget challenges.
49 We will wrestle with shortfalls and federal mandates, and accommodate a state
50 constitution with conflicting, and often confusing requirements, many of which 51 disregard the immediate needs of Colorado citizens.

52
53 In fact, I am reminded of the old Rubik's Cube, where the correct twists and 54 turns were always needed in the exact sequence to line up the colors on all
55 sides. I never could figure out the Rubik's Cube, but together, I am confident 56 that we can solve the state budget puzzle this year.

1 To do so in the current environment we will need the talent, creativity, and the
2 commitment of everyone in this room. We will also need to agree on a few
3 ground-rules, some family budget values, if you will.

5 Our budget should demonstrate that we understand the importance of the duty,
6 and the honor, that the people of Colorado have given to us.

8 It should reflect our commitment to protecting jobs and to protecting our 9 economy.

11 It should reflect our commitment to keeping commerce moving by providing 12 a safe and reliable transportation system.

14 It should reflect our commitment to the future through a diverse, accessible
15 education system for our children in Kindergarten through 12th grade, and on 16 through college.

18 It should reflect our commitment to supporting the industries that bring jobs and 19 revenue into our communities.

21 It should reflect our commitment to a government that is open and up front
22 about how it spends taxpayer dollars.

24 And it should reflect our respect for the freedom and opportunities that 25 Colorado families deserve.

26 27 Energy

28
29 Colorado is uniquely positioned to be a leader in energy, and with more than 30 just a "New Energy Economy" - we need a "Stable Energy Economy."

31
32 You've heard it said before: "Don't put all your eggs in one basket."

33
34 Now, we have several farmers and ranchers in the crowd, and surely they can 35 appreciate the wisdom of that statement.

37 Colorado has real potential to lead in the field of renewable energy. However, 38 we are also incredibly well positioned to lead in other energy fields: oil and 39 natural gas, clean coal, hydro-power, and even potentially nuclear power and oil 40 shale.

42 We live in a state that is blessed with many homegrown resources, and through 43 responsible development, we can lead the country toward energy independence.

45 What we must not do is sacrifice our economy - and the incredible number of 46 jobs created by the oil and gas industry in particular. We cannot afford to drive
47 away a thriving industry that is vital to many Colorado communities in these 48 difficult economic times.

49
50 As with all OF OUR business POLICIES, as we strive to do good, we must also 51 be careful to do no harm.

53 There is no 'one' right answer when it comes to energy independence. Instead,
54 we need a diverse and responsible portfolio to make Colorado a leader in 55 energy, and in turn to protect jobs and bolster our economy.

56

1 Transportation

2
3 A fundamental responsibility of government is to build and maintain our roads,
4 highways and bridges. This is a responsibility during good times and bad.

5
6 The stakes for us this year with transportation are high, indeed this is one of the 7 greatest opportunities we have.

8
9 And while Congress and the incoming administration in Washington have 10 signaled that they may provide states with some additional transportation
11 dollars, waiting around for the federal government to address the state's needs
12 is not a realistic option.

14 Instead, the legislature must move quickly.

15
16 By adopting an innovative financing method, we can use a relatively modest 17 amount of money to secure substantial funding for this critical priority.

19 Reliable and well maintained roads mean safer travel for Colorado families,
20 fewer roadblocks for commerce, and an opportunity to put more people to work
21 on our roads, highways and bridges.

22
23 We must come together to fix our crumbling roads and bridges.

24
25 Education

26
27 Education is also an area where we cannot afford to lose focus, and the budget
28 pressure on higher education this year will be enormous.

29
30 Last year, by working together, we were able to make significant progress
31 toward improving the quality of education for our students. As a result, the 32 Department of Education and the Department of Higher Education are now 33 cooperating to develop a seamless system to help our kids better compete in an 34 increasingly competitive world.

35
36 We also worked together to dedicate significant funding to make our school
37 buildings safer for students from pre-school through college, to reward our best 38 teachers, and to make up some lost ground for charter schools.

39
40 We must continue to build on these successes.

41
42 One of our great challenges this year in education is to keep higher education
43 affordable for all those who strive to improve their lives.

45 With so much of our budget protected by special requirements, our colleges and 46 universities will find themselves in the same budget squeeze as those who wish
47 to attend – ever rising costs competing for fewer dollars in a beleaguered
48 economy.

50 And that battered economy will result in many who have lost their jobs and look 51 to our community colleges and universities to learn new skills for their future.

52
53 Let's commit to an open and honest discussion with our college and university
54 presidents. Our goal should be to preserve hope and opportunity for a better
55 tomorrow for all Colorado citizens who seek a higher education.

56

1 Closing Remarks

2
3 The importance of a strong Colorado economy is an area where everyone in this
4 room – Republicans and Democrats alike – should be able to agree.

5
6 In November, election season came to an end. Now, in January, it is the time for 7 us to come together and lead.

8
9 Balancing our budget, protecting jobs, and bolstering our economy will require
10 true leadership. If we fail to meet any of those goals this year, everything else 11 that we do will matter little.

13 This is our challenge.

14
15 I hope that you will all join me in rising to meet it. We have shown in the past 16 that we do our best work, when we work together.

17
18 There is no choice but for us to succeed.

19
21 Representative Weissmann moved that the remarks of Speaker Carroll
22 and Representative May be printed in the journal.

25 Representative Benefield, Chairman of the Committee to Notify the 26 Senate, reported that the Senate had been notified that the House was 27 organized and ready for business.

29
30

Bill Ritter

39

Introduction

40

42 Good morning. Two years ago, I stood outside this Capitol and delivered my 43 inaugural address, sharing my belief in the sacred trust we hold with the people of 44 Colorado.

46 "It is a solemn duty to serve as an elected official," I said then. "We hold a sacred trust
47 with the people who elect us. We must honor that trust through our hard work, and 48 through our commitment to an open and honest relationship with the people of this 49 state. Every day we must work to maintain the trust conferred upon us by the oaths we 50 swear this morning."

51

52 Serving as governor has only reinforced my belief that holding public office is indeed
53 a sacred trust; a trust relationship not only with those who voted for us, but for all of 54 the people of our house districts, our senate districts, and yes, of the entire state.
55 Elections determine who has the privilege to serve, and with this privilege comes the 56 responsibility to honor this trust relationship, which dictates that we serve for all.

1 Today, as we, and the rest of the country, navigate this global economic downturn,
2 honoring that trust relationship is more important than ever before. It's important to 3 families who need health care, to small businesses struggling to meet payroll, and to
4 students juggling multiple jobs to pay for college. It's important to all those who live
5 at the margins, who are unemployed, or under-employed, and who need a safety net
6 until the turnaround comes, and it will come.

8 In this legislative session, in this tough economy, we'll need to make tough choices,
9 we'll need to collaborate and listen to one another as we chart a Colorado way
10 forward. Our challenges need more than just Democratic ideas or Republican ideas.
11 We need uniquely Colorado ideas.

13 Adversity is nothing new to Colorado, and neither is resilience. After last May's
14 tornado, the people of Windsor pulled together and found a way to rebuild. Just like 15 the people of Windsor, the people of Colorado will come together and overcome this 16 economic crisis. And like the Windsor High School Marching Band, which will
17 represent Colorado at President-elect Obama's inaugural parade, our state will march 18 ahead.

19
20 Yes, we face many obstacles. But a new president and a new year bring the promise
21 of change and opportunity. Together with the new administration, together with our 22 new Senators and our entire Congressional delegation, we will create a stronger 23 partnership with the federal government and work side-by-side on the challenges we 24 face.

26 President Groff, Speaker Carroll, honorable members of the House and the Senate,
27 thank you for allowing me to deliver my third State of the State Address here in this 28 chamber.

30 I look forward to working with all of you and your new leadership team. With 31 Terrance Carroll as your Speaker, you have made history two years in a row. With 32 Representative Curry and Senator Penry in leadership, you will have strong voices not 33 just for the Western Slope, but for all of rural Colorado.

35 To our many distinguished guests: Lt. Gov. O'Brien, Treasurer Kennedy, Attorney
36 General Suthers and Secretary of State-designee Buescher ...

37
38 Mayor Hickenlooper, newly-elected county commissioners, tribal chairs, members of 39 the Supreme Court and Board of Education ...

40
41 To members of my Cabinet, members of the public and all those outside this chamber,
42 thank you for this privilege.

43
44 And especially to my wife and Colorado's first lady, Jeannie ... thank you for 45 everything you do for the people of Colorado, and for our own family. Two of our four 46 kids, Tally and Sam; my mother, Ethel; and many of my siblings are here this morning, 47 too.

49 Achievements

50
51 The path forward will require tough choices and great cooperation. We are feeling
52 pain. But Colorado is still better off than many other states because we've made smart
53 investments and steady progress the past two years, progress that will help us weather
54 the immediate storm and create sustainable economic growth for the future.

55
56 In my first State of the State, I said the New Energy Economy must be our calling card

1 to the future. In two short years, we've created thousands of jobs, quadrupled our wind
2 power and made Colorado a global research leader. We introduced the New Energy
3 Economy to our president-elect and the rest of the country, and now we're introducing
4 it to the entire world.

6 We've launched the boldest education reforms in decades, because we should give
7 every child the chance to walk through the same doors of opportunity that you and I
8 walked through.

9
10 We've crafted an economic-development strategy geared toward knowledge-based 11 industries of the future. And through our Jobs Cabinet and community colleges, we 12 are aligning the needs of businesses with workforce development and training 13 programs.

15 We're providing greater protections for Colorado's air, land, water, wildlife and 16 communities.

18 We're reforming Colorado's health care system, enrolling 30,000 more uninsured kids
19 and 10,000 working parents in Child Health Plan-Plus and Medicaid.

21 We're greening government, and saving on energy costs.

22
23 We're making state government work better for taxpayers, taking a more common-24 sense approach and saving hundreds of millions of dollars, including $600,000 simply 25 by renegotiating cell phone contracts. $600,000 may not sound like a lot, but every 26 dollar counts.

28 We're making Colorado safer through our crime-prevention and anti-recidivism
29 initiatives, which will save taxpayers tens of millions of dollars.

30
31 And we're making government more modern and transparent by putting more services
32 online – and soon, working with Treasurer Kennedy's Office and Representative
33 Marostica, we'll have the state's checkbook online.

34
35 We have, together, Democrats and Republicans, made our state stronger.

36
37 Economic Challenges and Opportunities

38
39 Over the past two years, I've seen the promise of Colorado in every corner of our great
40 state, in classrooms, in research labs, in rural and urban Colorado alike. I've been all
41 across this vast state, because every place and every person in Colorado matters.

42
43 I also know that every place and every person in Colorado is, one way or another,
44 affected by the downturn. Mothers and fathers are losing their jobs. Members of my 45 own extended family have been laid off or otherwise seriously affected.

46
47 We can't underestimate the pain a family feels when there's a job loss. It affects 48 everything, every decision ... from being able to pay for groceries or new clothes to 49 being able to afford health care or college.

51 I know what it's like to grow up in a family affected by layoffs. My dad was a dry-land
52 wheat farmer, and he also was a construction worker and heavy equipment operator.
53 There were winters when there wasn't work to be found. There were times when my 54 mother put dinner on the table using food stamps for me and my 11 brothers and 55 sisters.

56

1 This session, we must do everything we can to help those who are struggling, to keep
2 Coloradans in their jobs, and to keep families in their homes.

4 The federal government recently approved our $34 million Neighborhood Stabilization
5 proposal to help communities and families recover from foreclosure. I look forward
6 to working with Senator Carroll and Representative Ferrandino on our plan to help
7 struggling homeowners get their finances in order and avoid foreclosure.

8
9 Families and businesses throughout Colorado are facing challenges they haven't seen
10 in generations. Families are making different decisions, setting different priorities, and 11 sacrificing. Just like every family in Colorado, we'll need to make tough choices here
12 in the Capitol as well.

14 Over the next 120 days, our collective focus must be on protecting businesses, creating
15 jobs, and managing the budget. I will look at everything we work on this session
16 through the lens of the economy – of what's responsible now and what's best for the 17 long run.

18 19 Fiscal Responsibility

20
21 Our first order of business will be to prudently manage the budget.

22
23 We made steady progress in 2007 and 2008 in education, health care and human 24 services. As we now undertake the hard work of budget-cutting, we must try to protect 25 those gains and position ourselves for a quick recovery.

26
27 Since early fall, we've taken a number of steps to shore up our fiscal house: imposing
28 a hiring freeze, stopping several new construction projects and halting non-essential
29 spending requests.

31 Since then, I've directed my department heads to find even deeper cuts, and next 32 week, my budget office will begin presenting the JBC with the first round of 33 recommended reductions.

35 Senator Keller, I look forward to working with you, the JBC and the legislature on 36 what will be a collaborative and bipartisan effort. We'll work to protect life, safety and 37 public health, and we won't abandon our obligation to provide safety-net services.

39 However, we will touch many other important public services. This will be hard on the 40 public and hard on public servants like those of you here today: lawmakers, judges, 41 mayors, county commissioners and school board members.

42
43 Unlike the previous recession, our options are more limited this time. Therefore,
44 everything will be on the table. We'll look at base budget cuts, cash-fund transfers,
45 program changes and the state's reserve. We've asked state employees for their ideas,
46 and we will ask them to sacrifice, too. As I announced before, employee compensation
47 will be part of the solution.

49 As I've said before, a budget is a moral document that should reflect our values.
50 We've used the budget the past two years to set Colorado on a forward path. Now, in 51 these tough times, we must focus on the bare fundamentals and delay some 52 investments we know will make Colorado stronger.

54 Delay does not mean forever, and we can't stop thinking about long-term investments
55 in human and physical capital – in education and research and innovation – because 56 those are the things that will help us rise up quicker than ever, and stronger than ever.

1 There is also an opportunity here – a chance to address TABOR and the constitutional
2 and statutory straightjacket that makes modern, sensible and value-based budgeting
3 an impossibility. Last year, former House Speaker Romanoff started the conversation,
4 and we need to keep it alive. We need to talk about life after Ref C – whether and
5 when to extend it. We have a chance to find a better way forward, a Colorado way
6 forward.

7
8 Economic Development

9
10 Despite our challenges, Colorado’s economy is still in better shape than many other 11 states. We’re fourth in the U.S. for venture capital funding, fifth for creating new 12 companies and first for women-owned businesses. We have one of the best-educated
13 workforces in the country, and among the highest concentrations of scientists, 14 engineers and high-tech workers.

16 We’ve crafted a focused economic-development strategy that will help us protect what
17 we’ve got and pave the way for future growth. We’re holding small-business finance
18 forums around the state. We’re partnering with Mayor Hickenlooper and other local 19 officials to jump-start the metro area’s economy.

21 When I and the nation’s governors met with President-elect Obama in November, he 22 said it would take courage and a strong federal-state partnership to get America back
23 on the path to long-term prosperity: “Any true solution will not come from 24 Washington alone; it will come from the White House and the State House working 25 together every step of the way.”

26
27 My administration is helping to design the president-elect’s economic recovery
28 package from the bottom up.

30 We’re also working closely with your Committee on Job Creation and Economic 31 Growth. Thank you Senators Schwartz, Heath and Vigil and Representatives Rice and 32 Marostica for sponsoring our job-creation and economic-growth bills.

34 By reviving the Colorado Credit Reserve Program, we can give thousands of small
35 businesses vital access to credit and capital. Here’s an example: Sid Huddleston runs
36 a sporting good shop in Pueblo. He sells soccer uniforms, and every winter he gets a 37 short-term loan to get through the slow part of the year.

38
39 Sid is a Vietnam War veteran. He’s never been denied a loan before, until now. He’s 40 depleted his retirement savings, and if he doesn’t get help soon, he’ll have to close his 41 doors for good. The Credit Program could be the answer for businesses like his.

42
43 By enacting House Bill 1001, the job-creation tax credit I announced last month, we 44 can level the playing field with other states when it comes to attracting new companies
45 and new jobs.

47 Colorado has never been able to compete against other states in terms of incentives.
48 This job-creation tax credit won’t just be a new tool in the toolbox – it will be a whole
49 new toolbox. Just the fact that we’re considering this incentive has put us back in 50 contention for yet another New Energy Economy wind manufacturing plant.

51
52 New Energy Economy

53
54 Two years ago, I talked about the New Energy Economy as a way to build wind farms
55 in wheat fields and make our universities research leaders in renewable energy. Today,
56 our New Energy Economy is not just creating a culture of sustainability, it’s fulfilling

1 the promise of a new energy future and a new economic future for all of America.
2
3 I'm working with our congressional delegation and the incoming Obama
4 administration to ensure the federal recovery package includes funds for transmission
5 lines and other clean-energy projects.
6
7 The New Energy Economy is a place where we must keep creating new jobs, new 8 innovations and new opportunities. This session, we also must continue bringing the 9 New Energy Economy home for ordinary Coloradans.
10
11 We'll be introducing legislation with Representative Merrifield and Senator Carroll
12 requiring that all new single-family homes come with a "solar-ready" option. Today, 13 homebuyers already have choices when it comes to countertops, paint colors and 14 flooring. People should have similar options when it comes to sustainability.
15
16 I'm equally excited about another of Senator Carroll's proposals, the Renewable 17 Energy Financing Act, which will facilitate financing for residential and business
18 clean-energy projects.
20 My office also is working with Treasurer Kennedy, Representative Andy Kerr and 21 Senator Schwartz on a plan for wind and solar projects on schools in rural Colorado.
22 This will help reduce schools' energy costs so they can focus their dollars where they 23 belong – in the classroom.
24
25 And we are moving forward with Representative Apuan on proposal that would 26 require home-sellers to disclose their energy bills for the past 12 months, to help
27 prospective buyers anticipate their monthly expenses.
28
29 My thanks to lawmakers on both sides of the aisle for sponsoring and supporting these 30 bills.
31
32 My thanks also to Colorado's traditional energy sector, which is a key part of our New 33 Energy Economy.
34
35 We have some of the richest natural gas reserves in the nation. We must ensure 36 Colorado's natural gas continues to meet America's energy needs today and serves as 37 a clean-burning bridge fuel for tomorrow. That's why I'm working with industry and 38 others to include funds for gas pipelines in the federal recovery package.
39
40 This session, I'm asking you to finalize rules, passed unanimously by the oil and gas
41 commission, to improve the quality of energy development in Colorado. I'm proud
42 of the commission's work. They listened to every interested party and found the right
43 balance. With these rules, Colorado companies and Colorado workers can 44 successfully drill for natural gas, while our air, land, water, wildlife and communities
45 are protected.
47 Transportation
48
49 Transportation funding also will be a big part of the federal economic recovery
50 package.
51
52 For every billion dollars of transportation construction, we protect or create at least 53 35,000 jobs. We've put together a list of 160 shovel-ready highway, transit and 54 aviation projects, worth about $1.4 billion. The federal piece of this is vital. It will 55 create immediate jobs and help us build a modern transportation system for the future.
56 But it's just a first step. Those are just one-time dollars.

1 We have a much bigger problem. We're trying to run a 21st-century transportation
2 system on a 20th-century funding model that's no longer sustainable.

4 Even with federal recovery dollars, we don't have the resources to repair the 126
5 structurally deficient bridges in Colorado. We don't have the resources to maintain
6 aging and congested highways. And we don't have the resources to give commuters
7 the transit choices they demand and deserve.

8
9 This session, even in this tough economy, we need to find a new way forward.
10 Eighteen months ago, I convened a bipartisan transportation panel to examine the 11 problem and offer solutions. The panel has done its job; now it's time for us to do 12 ours.

14 Over the past few months, my administration has been building a bipartisan coalition
15 of business, civic and government leaders to support an omnibus transportation bill
16 called FASTER – Funding Advancements for Surface Transportation and Economic 17 Recovery.

19 This bill will establish a new transportation vision for the future – a vision that creates
20 jobs, a vision we can implement in stages, and a vision that's both bold and realistic
21 about what we can afford. This will take political courage and strong leadership,
22 because this will not be free. It will require asking people to invest more in a down
23 economy.

25 For the short-term, we'll need to put safety and maintenance first, by looking at fees
26 and bonding to fix old bridges and old roadways. For the mid-term, we'll need to be
27 even more creative, looking at public-private partnerships and other financing options.
28 And for the long-term, we'll need to craft a sustainable funding formula that's 29 responsible, fair and affordable.

30
31 I look forward to continuing the dialogue this session, and I offer my thanks to 32 Representatives McFadyen and Rice and Senators Shaffer, Gibbs and Penry for their 33 leadership on this pressing issue.

34 35 Education

37 While investments in the New Energy Economy and transportation are essential, the 38 best economic strategy is an education strategy.

39
40 Colorado already has a lot to brag about, including one of the best-educated
41 workforces in the country. But we can – we must – do better. Our achievement gaps
42 are still too wide. Too few Colorado kids are graduating from college, and for the past 43 10 years, we've made virtually no measurable improvements in student learning.

45 The P-20 Council, under the wise leadership of Barbara O'Brien, continues to offer
46 thoughtful reform proposals, and you will see several of those ideas this session. We 47 also will continue to implement Senate Bill 212, the bipartisan Colorado Achievement
48 Plan for Kids, among the most progressive reforms in the nation.

50 Certainly, it's hard to talk about funding new reforms in a bad economy. But we can't 51 shortchange hope. So this session we will bring you a statewide concurrent-enrollment 52 plan that will give high school students an opportunity to earn college credits while 53 finishing high school.

55

1 Colorado currently has a handful of different laws governing concurrent enrollment.
2 In fact, many of you voted in favor of Senate Bill 148 in 2007. Now it's time to take
3 this effort to the next level.

4
5 We are proposing a comprehensive, statewide approach that will guide high school
6 students who are taking college courses. This is an efficient student-centered concept
7 that will give kids a reason to stay in school and accelerate their progress toward 8 degrees and workforce-readiness.

9
10 It sets high, rigorous standards while keeping college affordable and accessible. It 11 addresses two of my major education goals: cutting the dropout rate in half and 12 doubling the number of college degrees earned by Colorado students.

14 Now, more than ever, we must focus on policies like this, which will help us rebound
15 from the downturn and put us back on the path to prosperity. Thank you,
16 Representative Merrifield and Senator Williams, for carrying this bill.

17 18 Health Care

19
20 Health care is also an area where we must stay focused. Fortunately, President-elect
21 Obama has made health-care reform a priority. He knows state health-care plans and 22 safety-net providers must be part of the recovery package, because, as more people
23 lose their jobs and health insurance, that's a cost burden all of us must shoulder.

24
25 Over the past two years, we've made steady progress in Colorado with our Building
26 Blocks to Health Care Reform initiative. This year, my health agenda will focus on a 27 new strategy to move more than 100,000 Coloradans off the rolls of the uninsured.

28
29 For the past eight months, my office has worked closely with hospitals across the state
30 on a strategy to bring in more federal Medicaid funding – significantly more – without 31 requiring additional general fund appropriations. The process is simple and already in 32 use in several states.

34 Hospitals would pay a fee based on their patient revenue. This revenue would then be 35 used to leverage matching federal dollars. Finally, the new resources would be used 36 to reduce underpayments to hospitals – stabilizing their rates – and to provide 37 coverage to our most vulnerable populations.

39 My thanks to the Colorado Hospital Association, Bill Lindsay, Don Kortz, Senator
40 Keller and Representative Riesberg, for their leadership on this plan.

42 During these difficult economic times, when more and more families are struggling
43 to access health care, our provider fee partnership with the hospitals is a bright light 44 that will not only help the uninsured, but slow the escalating cost of health care for 45 struggling businesses as well.

46 47 Conclusion

48
49 As I said at the start, we must honor our sacred trust with voters by working together
50 to make the tough choices that lie ahead. We must overcome these challenges for the 51 short-term and aggressively pursue new opportunities for the long-term, opportunities 52 that can have national and international impact.

53
54 In addition to my travels throughout Colorado, I've visited solar plants in Spain, seen
55 shrinking polar ice sheets in the Arctic, and breathed the polluted air in China. These 56 experiences are sharp reminders that Colorado companies can, and already are,

1 addressing issues like climate change and clean energy. Investing in Colorado
2 technologies and innovations will create a better future here at home, and also around

4
5 And this isn't just about investing in the future. This is about inventing the future –
6 and not just a new energy future, but a new medical future, a new aerospace future, a
7 new technology future.

8
9 This is not about yesterday. This is about seizing the opportunities of today to realize
10 the possibilities of tomorrow. When I was in Japan a couple months ago, I was 11 reminded of something the politician Youzan Uesugi said 200 years ago, “The 12 government of now exists to prosperously link the nation of our ancestors to that of 13 our children.”

15 Those who came before us here in Colorado were wise enough to plant wheat fields, 16 stake their mining claims, carve railroads and highways through the mountains, and 17 build Denver International Airport. Even in a global economic crisis, you and I – the 18 government of now – must realize the next great opportunity that will link us to our 19 children and our grandchildren.

21 One hundred years from now, I want Coloradans to look back and see this as the 22 turning point – the point when we set aside partisan politics and worked together as 23 Coloradans and built a New Energy Economy, a modern transportation system, and 24 the country's best education system.

26 In his election night remarks, President-elect Obama reminded us of the words of 27 Lincoln: “We are not enemies, but friends ... Though passion may have strained, it 28 must not break our bonds of affection.”

29
30 We will need to work together as responsible leaders to make the difficult choices
31 necessary to weather this storm. We must not give in to partisan politics. We must not 32 let cynicism win out over hope. We must not let fear win out over faith.

33
34 Future generations will look back to see if we let petty differences stand in the way of 35 steady progress, if we looked past our own differences to rebuild the economy, to put 36 people back to work and to get this state and this country moving again.

37
38 The people of Colorado are counting on us to govern well. We have been given the 39 privilege of serving, the responsibility of charting a clear path forward. Let's make 40 good on the Colorado Promise, together.

41
42 Thank you, and may God bless Colorado.

51 President Groff, Speaker Carroll, Members of the 67th General Assembly, honored

53

Introduction

54

55 It is an honor to be here with you today to discuss the state of Colorado's judiciary.

56 I was pleased to accept your invitation to continue a longstanding tradition of the

1 Chief Justice addressing members of the General Assembly at the beginning of the

4 Thank you for your support over the past several years it is most appreciated. There
5 are many ways you have helped us, but I would like to focus on a few that will 6 undoubtedly have positive impacts in serving the people of Colorado for years to 7 come.

8
9 I want to focus on four of these accomplishments: the addition of new judges,
10 approval for the Ralph L. Carr Justice Center, courthouse security grants and 11 increasing the state's probation officers.

12
13 Before I discuss the specifics of these accomplishments, let me take a minute to 14 provide an overview of the judiciary.

15 16 Overview of the Judiciary

18 As Chief Justice, I proudly represent the state's 304 judges and justices and more than 19 3,200 additional full- and part-time employees of the Colorado Judicial Department.
20 These devoted professionals work in a variety of settings around the state--from the 21 trial courts and probation offices in each of the state's 64 counties to the appellate 22 courts here in Denver. I would like to take a moment to publicly thank the justices, 23 judges, and employees of the Colorado Judicial Department. I remain impressed with 24 their hard work and dedication to serving the citizens of Colorado.

26 Colorado's courts continue to face a daunting workload. Colorado is the fifth-fastest
27 growing state. Since the 2000 Census, our population has grown 15 percent. During 28 that same time period, we have seen court filings rise 25 percent. In Fiscal Year 2008,
29 nearly three-quarters of a million new cases were filed in Colorado. That is equivalent
30 to 300 cases filed every business hour. Our case loads historically track population
31 growth. But in these difficult economic times we've seen a dramatic growth in debt-
32 related actions. For example, foreclosure filings are up more than 400 percent since 33 the last Census, and debt-collection actions at the county court level alone have 34 increased more than 70 percent.

35 36 New Judges

37
38 That is why adding new judges has been so important. House Bill 1054 passed in 39 2007, addressed an historic shortage of judges by creating 43 new judgeships around
40 the state. The addition of these new judges enables us to enhance the quality of justice
41 delivered to the people of Colorado.

42
43 I want to thank the bill's sponsors, Speaker Carroll and Senator Shaffer for 44 shepherding this legislation.

45 46 Ralph L. Carr Justice Center

47
48 Another very important accomplishment of last year was the passage of Senate Bill
49 206, which authorized the construction of the Ralph L. Carr Justice Center. I thank
50 you for your commitment to this project, particularly the bill sponsors--Senators
51 Shaffer and Penry and Representative Marostica and Speaker Carroll.

52
53 The Justice Center is expected to open in 2014, on the block now occupied by the 54 Judicial Building and the Colorado History Museum. The bill creates a new home for 55 the museum one block away from its current location. Naming the building after 56 Governor Carr is a fitting tribute and should prove to be an inspiration to all public

1 servants because he had the courage to do the right thing in the face of overwhelming
2 public opposition.

3
4 The new justice center will be a complex of buildings. The heart of the justice center
5 will be the courtrooms and offices of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. The 6 complex will also bring together all of the state's legally related offices, the largest of 7 which is the Office of the Attorney General.

8
9 Your support for a new justice center will have long lasting benefits for all the state's 10 law-related agencies and the people who utilize these agencies. Not only will the new 11 facility improve operational efficiencies, it is projected to save the state approximately 12 $60 million over 30 years in lease savings, along with reduced utility and maintenance 13 costs.

14 15 Courthouse Security Grants

16
17 Another initiative you supported that will have long-lasting benefits for court users is 18 the courthouse security grant program. Through our partnerships with Colorado's 64
19 counties we are ensuring citizens have safe environments for resolving their disputes.
20 The sponsors of this bill were Senator Shaffer and Representative Steve King.

21 22 Probation Services

23
24 Over the last several years you authorized a 23 percent increase in the number of 25 probation officers. Probation is an integral part of the Judicial Branch. The 26 Department of Probation Services is the largest correctional system in the State of 27 Colorado. It is responsible for the supervision of approximately 60% of the juvenile 28 and adult cases that come through the courts. That represents 7,600 juvenile offenders
29 and 61,000 adult offenders.

30
31 With those additional probation officers we have reduced case loads, which has 32 resulted in better supervision. We have been effective in keeping offenders in the 33 community and out of the department of corrections at a significant cost savings. For 34 every dollar spent on probation you would spend 23 dollars for an adult offender in 35 the Department of Corrections and 37 dollars for a juvenile in the division of youth
36 corrections.

37 38 Quality of Services

39
40 The support you have provided us through these initiatives, and many others is 41 important because it has enabled us to improve the quality of services we provide to 42 the public. There are three parts to our quality improvement efforts - feedback, 43 accountability and training.

45 Last year, we launched a project to obtain citizens' perspectives on the Colorado
46 courts' accessibility and how they were treated in terms of fairness, equality, and 47 respect. In this program judges, clerks and other court employees surveyed people as 48 they exited the courthouses. Overall, we received survey responses from 49 approximately 5,500 peoples in 11 of our 22 judicial districts.

50
51 These court users overwhelmingly indicated that they felt they were treated with 52 courtesy and respect in their dealings with the court. They also indicated that the court
53 processes and facilities were easy to navigate. The survey responses show some 54 evidence that litigants sometimes feel rushed through court hearings. I hope that your 55 recent infusion of new resources and judgeships will enable us to begin to address
56 these concerns.

1 We will continue conducting these surveys in 2009 to help ensure that the needs of the
2 public are properly considered when pursuing changes in our business practices.

4 We also receive feedback from a variety of other sources. For example, I was pleased
5 to learn that a 2008 U. S. Chamber of Commerce report ranks the fairness of the civil 6 litigation climate in Colorado 9th nationally with our judges' impartiality and 7 competence identified as the strongest elements of our system.

8
9 Last year we took our first comprehensive overhaul of time standards for processing
10 cases in Colorado courts. These standards establish how long it should take to resolve
11 different types of cases. Overall we are doing well, but the case type area showing the 12 most delay is in district court with civil cases and in DUI cases at the county court
13 level. Overall, I am pleased with our efforts to eliminate delay in resolving cases. We 14 work hard to balance the need to move cases through the process and the desire for all 15 litigants to receive ample time during hearings to present their case.

17 We know that ingoing training for judges is invaluable. Our annual new judge
18 orientation programs have been expanded to address more substantive areas of law,
19 as well as case management, the role of the judge, demeanor and access and fairness
20 issues. Providing all of our judges with the most technologically advanced tools is 21 also essential.

22
23 Our information technology continues to rival the best among the state court systems.
24 No other state courts can match our system's integrated case management and ability
25 to share data with other agencies. This is especially important for tracking criminal 26 cases and dependency and neglect cases because it provides judges with all of the 27 information they need to make the best decisions.

28 29 Looking Ahead

30
31 We have tried to present to you a budget that is as frugal as possible. There is one 32 significant item we are requesting. The counties have invested $191 million in new 33 courthouses and courthouse additions. Now the state must meet its statutory 34 obligation to furnish and equip those facilities. We are asking for $3.1 million to meet
35 this requirement.

37 We recognize that this is an especially difficult budget year. Since our budget is 88
38 percent personal services, our options for achieving savings are somewhat limited.
39 We are bound by common policies. Again, I thank you for your past and ongoing
40 support of the Judicial Department, it people and programs.

42 I leave you with my commitment to work with you as a partner in proactively
43 addressing any issues that may arise this year. I wish you well as you undertake the 44 important work of this session. Doing the work of the people is always challenging, 45 and that work will likely be compounded by this year's economic challenges.

19 THE COMMISSION'S DECISION TO FOCUS ON REDUCING

23 THE EFFECTIVENESS OF A WIDE RANGE OF TRADITIONAL
24 CRIMINAL JUSTICE PRACTICES. IN COLORADO, OVER HALF
25 (53 PERCENT) OF THOSE RELEASED FROM PRISON RETURN
26 WITHIN THREE YEARS. THIS IS A SIZABLE NUMBER: IN FISCAL 27 YEAR 2007, OVER 4,000 INDIVIDUALS WERE REVOKED FROM

43 REPORT FROM THE HOUSE ETHICS COMMITTEE

44 In re Complaint of Representative Mike May

45 To the Speaker of the House of Representatives:
46
47

48
49 The House Ethics Committee (Committee) appointed pursuant to House
50 Rule 49 has met to consider the Complaint filed by House Minority
51 Leader Mike May against Representative David Balmer, dated
52 December 16, 2008. The Committee met on January 7, 2009,
53 January 20, 2009, and January 28, 2009. While House Rule 49 (c)
54 prevents committees appointed pursuant to that rule from receiving
55 testimony during the preliminary investigation stage, this Committee
56 made its best efforts to compile documentation allowable by the rule that

1 would help shed light on the issues under its consideration. In its
 2 investigation, the Committee carefully considered the evidence compiled
 3 pursuant its requests. Minutes of these discussions and actions taken at 4 those meetings, along with the evidentiary information collected, are 5 maintained by the Legislative Council staff and may be reviewed at that 6 office.

7
 8 The Committee recognizes that members of the General Assembly should 9 hold themselves to the highest ethical standards. Accordingly, the 10 members of the Committee take very seriously their responsibility and 11 obligation under House Rule 49, when investigating one of their own, to 12 preserve the public's confidence in the legislative institution.

13
 14 Based upon its preliminary investigation, the Committee, by a unanimous
 15 vote, found that there was no probable cause to believe that an ethics
 16 violation had occurred on the part of Representative Balmer and therefore 17 dismissed the Complaint.

18
 19 Respectfully submitted this 28th day of January 2009.

 22 hereby finds and declares that Colorado has limited economic resources 23 available to meet the significant need for medical services that exists in 24 communities within the state. Accordingly, state-funded health care
 25 programs should be monitored to ensure that quality care is being 26 provided and resources are not lost to waste, fraud, neglect, indifference,
 27 or abuse. The general assembly further finds that, by allowing a health
 28 care provider or network of providers to create an accountability system
 29 to review grievances submitted by medically indigent persons receiving
 30 services through the Colorado indigent care program, the state may better 31 monitor the intended care that providers have a duty to provide under the 32 program and that has been paid for with taxpayers' money. Moreover,
 33 medically indigent persons receiving care under the program should have 34 a voice in helping to ensure that the program is providing the type of 35 medical care and the quality of medical care that the program is intended 36 to provide.

36 administration, and reasonable funeral and burial, interment, or cremation
37 expenses, which shall be paid in the priority and manner set forth in

54 or disposed of by memorandum under section 15-11-513 to any person
55 other than a person entitled to exempt property may not be used to satisfy
56 rights to exempt property. Subject to this restriction, the surviving spouse,

3 representative may make these selections if the surviving spouse, the 4 dependent children, or the guardians of the minor children are unable or 5 fail to do so within a reasonable time or there is no guardian of a minor
6 child. The personal representative may execute an instrument or deed of 7 distribution to establish the ownership of property taken as exempt
8 property allowance. The personal representative may determine the family 9 allowance in a lump sum not exceeding twenty-four thousand dollars or 10 periodic installments not exceeding two thousand dollars per month for 11 one year and may disburse funds of the estate in payment of the family
12 allowance. The personal representative or an interested person aggrieved 13 by any selection, determination, payment, proposed payment, or failure to 14 act under this section may petition the court for appropriate relief, which 15 may provide a family allowance other than that which the personal
