Resolution Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this resolution as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this resolution passes third reading in the house of introduction, a resolution summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this resolution will be available at <http://www.leg.state.co.us/billsummaries>.)

Currently, the minimum total number of signatures of registered electors required for an initiative petition to amend the state constitution is equal to 5% of the votes cast in the previous election for the office of secretary of state, and there is no requirement for geographic distribution of those signatures. If on the ballot, such an initiative becomes part of the constitution if approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon.

The concurrent resolution makes the following changes related to a proposed constitutional initiative:

- ! 5% of the minimum total number of signatures must be gathered from residents in each United States congressional district; and
- ! An initiated constitutional amendment will become part of the constitution if approved by 60% of the votes cast thereon; except that this requirement shall not apply to an amendment that is limited to repealing a provision of the constitution in existence prior to the 2011 odd-year election or certain amendments related to Amendment 61, which is to be voted on at the 2010 general election.
