homeowners and HOAs must enforce, if at all, through private legal action. There is no state agency supervising the operation of HOAs or enforcing compliance by either individual homeowners or HOAs with the requirements of state law.

The bill creates the office of the HOA ombudsman to advocate on behalf of unit owners, mediate disputes, and act as a clearing house for information on the governing law. Sections 2 and 5 of the bill direct the secretary of state to collect a surcharge on registration fees of HOAs that are organized as nonprofit corporations to pay the direct and indirect costs of the ombudsman's office. Section 4 outlines the ombudsman's powers, duties, and qualifications and creates a cash fund. Section 6 provides for sunset review of the ombudsman's office after 10 years.
