*(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. The sales tax of a statutory town, city, or county (local government) is generally based on the state sales tax. Certain state sales tax exemptions, however, only apply to the local sales tax if the governing body of the local government expressly includes the exemption in the initial sales tax ordinance or resolution or by an amendment thereto. An amendment to the initial sales tax must be adopted in the same manner as the initial ordinance or resolution. Thus, if the registered electors approved the initial ordinance or resolution, then an election would likewise be a prerequisite to creating the exemption. Sales tax exemptions related to sales of the following items are subject to this requirement:

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment.

- ! Machinery or machine tools;
- ! Electricity, coal, wood, gas, fuel oil, or coke;
- ! Food;
- ! Vending machine sales of food;
- ! Sales by a charitable organization;
- ! Farm equipment and farm equipment under lease or contract;
- ! Low-emitting motor vehicles, power sources, or parts used for converting such power sources;
- ! Pesticides;
- ! Wood from salvaged trees killed or infested in Colorado by mountain pine beetles;
- ! Components used in the production of energy from a renewable energy source;
- ! Sales that benefit a Colorado school; and
- ! Sales by an association or organization of parents and teachers of public school students that is a charitable organization.

The bill eliminates the requirement that the amendment to the initial sales tax be adopted in the same manner as the initial ordinance or resolution.
