Summary of Legislation

This bill prohibits a landlord or a common interest community (i.e., home owner associations (HOA)) from preventing a tenant from installing an electric vehicle charging system on property owned or exclusively controlled by a unit owner. A tenant or homeowner must agree to comply with design specifications and other limitations.

Under current law, only local governments may apply for and receive grant funding from the Electric Vehicle Grant Fund, administered by the Colorado Energy Office (CEO). This bill permits landlords of multi-family apartment buildings and HOAs to apply for grants to install electric vehicle charging stations.

State Expenditures

This bill will increase administrative expenses in the CEO, but this increase is anticipated to be minimal and can be paid with existing appropriations. The CEO must accommodate additional applications to the electric vehicle grant program. In addition to local governments, the CEO may award grants to private entities for installation of vehicle charging stations. A larger pool of applicants will increase the cost to consider and process applications; however the total amount of money awarded from the grant program is unchanged by the bill.

In FY 2013-14, the CEO has budgeted $40,000 for the electric vehicle grant fund. This funding is from federal sources. In FY 2014-15, the CEO anticipates additional federal funding up to $120,000.

Local Government Impact

Local governments will now be in competition with other private entities for access to CEO grant funding, possibly reducing the amount of grant money awarded to local governments. No estimate of this reduction is available.
