definition, deduction, exemption, credit, or rate for certain persons, types of income, transactions, or property that results in reduced tax revenue. The department prepares this report using an appropriation from the tax amnesty cash fund.

The department is also required to prepare the report prior to later odd-numbered years, but it may opt out of this duty if it does not receive an appropriation to pay for the direct and indirect costs of preparing the report and if it provides notice to the finance committees of the house of representatives and the senate. The bill eliminates the department's ability to opt out of preparing the report.
