HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 14-1015 101 CONCERNING THE DECLARATION OF APRIL 28, 2014, THROUGH MAY 4, 102 2014, AS HOLOCAUST AWARENESS WEEK. 1 WHEREAS, Prejudice, bigotry, racism, and hate have been the cause of conflict, war, and mass atrocities throughout history; and 2 3 WHEREAS, The Nazi regime was able to exploit severe economic hardships in the aftermath of World War I to foster prejudice and hatred 4 5 toward a group that had historically been used as scapegoats throughout 6 Europe, culminating in the attempt to exterminate the Jewish population 7 in Europe, widely known as the Holocaust; and 8 WHEREAS, During the Holocaust, at least 11 million people were 9 brutally murdered, at least 6 million of whom were Jewish people; and

1	WHEREAS, Other marginalized groups, such as Soviet prisoners
2	of war, ethnic Poles, political and religious dissenters, intellectuals,
3	homosexuals, children and adults with disabilities, and Roma, were
4	victims of the Holocaust; and
5	WHEREAS, It is imperative that we and future generations never
6	forget the tragic lessons learned from the organized,
7	government-sponsored mass killings of the Holocaust; and
8	WHEREAS, The lessons of the Holocaust are becoming more
9	difficult to teach as survivors continue to pass away and, consequently,
10	first-hand accounts become more scarce; and
11	WHEREAS, It is also important to remember, honor, and emulate
12	those righteous people who risked their lives to save thousands of 13	innocent people during the Holocaust and to learn from their legacy of 14	courage, selflessness, and hope; and
15	WHEREAS, Many courageous people have been honored with the
16	designation of "Righteous Among the Nations" by Yad Vashem, the
17	Holocaust Martyrs' and Heroes' Remembrance Authority, for acts of
18	bravery in saving the lives of Jewish people during the Holocaust,
19	reminding us today of our personal obligations to stand up against
20	prejudice and discrimination; and
21	WHEREAS, As a common standard of achievement for all people
22	and nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights of 1948
23	(Declaration) adopted by the United Nations asserts that "recognition of
24	the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members
25	of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice, and peace in 26	the world"; and
27	WHEREAS, The Declaration notes that "disregard and contempt
28	for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the
29	conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings
30	shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want
31	has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people"; and
32	WHEREAS, Pursuant to the Declaration, "Member States have
33	pledged themselves to achieve, in cooperation with the United Nations,
34	the promotion of universal respect for and observance of human rights
35	and fundamental freedoms"; and
