

UPDATED SUMMARY
HOUSE BILL 15-1060

First Regular Session - Seventieth Colorado General Assembly

This summary applies to the reengrossed version of this bill as introduced in the second house. It does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. This summary reflects only the main points of the legislation.

Current law requires that the court state the terms of the protection order and that the defendant must acknowledge the order when a defendant is charged with domestic violence or stalking. As well, the prosecutor can request a hearing to modify the protection order in those cases. The bill extends those provisions to all sex-offense cases and clarifies how the acknowledgment is made.

Italicized words indicate new material added to the original summary; dashes through words indicate deletions from the original summary.
Prepared by the Office of Legislative Legal Services.