therapeutic, or reentry program, or who demonstrates exceptional conduct that promotes the safety of correctional staff, volunteers, contractors, or other persons under the supervision of the department of corrections (department), may be awarded as many as 60 days of achievement earned time per program milestone or phase or per instance of exceptional conduct, in addition to earned time that is otherwise authorized. The bill states that the general assembly shall appropriate any savings generated from the awarding of such achievement earned time to:

! The education subprogram, for academic and vocational programs to offenders; and

! The parole subprogram, for parole wrap-around services.

The appropriation must not exceed $5 million in any fiscal year. In allocating the appropriated moneys to the parole subprogram, for parole wrap-around services, the department shall give priority to parole wrap-around services that are administered based on evidence-based practices.
