

UPDATED SUMMARY
HOUSE BILL 16-1032

Second Regular Session - Seventieth Colorado General Assembly

This summary applies to the reengrossed version of this bill as introduced in the second house. It does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. This summary reflects only the main points of the legislation.

When a peace officer issues a person a summons for a criminal violation, current law requires that the summons contain ~~among other information:~~

!— ~~The person's license plate number and driver's license number; and~~

!— ~~a place for the person to execute a promise to appear.~~

The bill removes the requirement to include the person's license plate number and driver's license number on the summons. The bill also removes the requirement for a place for the defendant to execute a promise to appear.

Italicized words indicate new material added to the original summary; dashes through words indicate deletions from the original summary.
Prepared by the Office of Legislative Legal Services.