Under current law, if a respondent in a domestic relations action cannot be personally served and is served by publication, the clerk of the court is required to post a copy of the process on a bulletin board in his or her office for 35 days after the date of publication. The bill gives the clerk the option of posting the service online on the court's website rather than on a bulletin board.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 14-10-107, amend
3 (4) (a) as follows:

4 14-10-107. Commencement - pleadings - abolition of existing 5 defenses - automatic, temporary injunction - enforcement.

6 (4) (a) Upon the commencement of a proceeding by one of the parties,
7 or by a legal guardian or conservator of one of the parties, the other party
8 shall be personally served in the manner provided by the Colorado rules 9 of civil procedure, and he or she may file a response in accordance with 10 such rules; except that, upon motion verified by the oath of the party 11 commencing the proceeding or of someone in his or her behalf for an 12 order of publication stating the facts authorizing such service, and 13 showing the efforts, if any, that have been made to obtain personal service 14 within this state, and giving the address or last-known address of each 15 person to be served or stating that his or her address and last-known 16 address are unknown, the court shall hear the motion ex parte and, if 17 satisfied that due diligence has been used to obtain personal service 18 within this state or that efforts to obtain the same would have been to no 19 avail, shall order one publication of a consolidated notice in a newspaper 20 published or having general circulation in the county in which the 21 proceeding is filed, notwithstanding the provisions of article 70 of title 22 24, C.R.S. A consolidated notice shall be published at least once during 23 a calendar month and shall list the proceedings filed subsequent to those 24 named in the previously published consolidated notice, stating as to each 25 proceeding the names of the parties, the action number, the nature of the 26 action, that a copy of the petition and summons may be obtained from the

1 clerk of the court during regular business hours, and that default judgment 2 may be entered against that party upon whom service is made by such 3 notice if he or she fails to appear or file a response within thirty-five days
4 after the date of publication. Costs of publication of a consolidated notice 5 may be assessed pro rata to each of the proceedings named in the notice; 6 except that, if a party is indigent or otherwise unable to pay such 7 publication costs, the costs shall be paid by the court from funds 8 appropriated for the purpose. Service shall be complete upon such 9 publication, and a response or appearance by the party served by 10 publication under this subsection (4) shall be made within thirty-five days 11 thereafter, or default judgment may be entered. No later than the day of 12 publication, the clerk of the court shall also post for thirty-five 13 consecutive days a copy of the process on a bulletin board in his or her 14 office AND MAY POST IT ON THE WEBSITE OF THE DISTRICT COURT IN 15 WHICH THE CASE WAS FILED and shall mail a copy of the process to the 16 other party at his or her last-known address, and shall place in the file of 17 the proceeding his or her certificate of posting and mailing. Proof of 18 publication of the consolidated notice shall be by placing in the file a 19 copy of the affidavit of publication, certified by the clerk of the court to 20 be a true and correct copy of the original affidavit on file in the clerk's 21 office.

22 SECTION 2. Safety clause. The general assembly hereby finds, 23 determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate 24 preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.
