PAGE 3-HOUSE BILL 16-1259
23-71-119. Regular meetings. (1) The regular meetings of the junior LOCAL DISTRICT college board of trustees shall hold regular meetings as the board decides; except that there shall be no less than four regular meetings each year. The board may hold additional or special meetings upon call of the president or a majority of the board. The secretary of the board shall notify the members of all meetings. The board shall hold all special and regular meetings of the board at locations which are within the boundaries of the district or which are within the boundaries of any county in which the district is located, in whole or in part, or in any county so long as the meeting location is not farther than twenty miles from the district boundaries. The board may waive the provisions of this section governing the location of meetings only if the proposed change of location of a meeting of the board appears on the agenda of a regular or special meeting of the board and if the board adopts a resolution stating the reason for which a meeting of the board is to be held in a location other than under the provisions of this section and further stating the date, time, and place of the meeting.

(2) (a) The board of trustees of Colorado Mountain College, without holding a meeting, may take an action that is otherwise required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting if:

(I) The secretary of the board transmits in writing to each member of the board notice of the proposed action to be taken without a meeting;

(II) A board member does not demand in writing that the action described in the notice be discussed in a regular or special board meeting;

(III) After the board receives notice of the proposed action, the board secretary provides full and timely notice of the proposed action to the public by posting notice of the proposed action in the designated public place for posting notice of meetings described in section 24-6-402 (2) (c), C.R.S., and a member of the public does not request that the proposed action be DISCUSSED IN A REGULAR OR SPECIAL BOARD MEETING; AND

(IV) Every member of the board, by the date stated in the notice, delivers a written vote in favor of taking the action.

(b) The notice required by this subsection (2) must, at a minimum, state:

(I) The action to be taken;

(II) The date by which each board member must respond; and

(III) That failure to respond by the date stated in the notice has the same effect as voting against the action stated in the notice.

(c) The board of trustees of Colorado Mountain College may take an action without a meeting as provided in this subsection (2) only if, by the date stated in the notice transmitted pursuant to this subsection (2), the board president receives an affirmative vote in favor of the action in writing from each member of the board and does not receive a written demand by a board member that the action not be taken without a meeting. Unless the notice transmitted pursuant to this subsection (2) states a different effective date, an action taken pursuant to this subsection (2) is effective on the date for response stated in the notice transmitted pursuant to this subsection (2).

(d) A writing by a board member under this subsection (2) must, at a minimum, specify the identity of the board member; the vote, abstention, demand, or revocation of the board member; and the proposed action to which the vote, abstention, demand, or revocation relates. Unless otherwise provided by an action of the board, all communications under this subsection (2) may be transmitted or received by electronically transmitted facsimile, electronic mail, or other form of wire or wireless communication. For purposes of this subsection (2), communications are not effective until received.

(e) An action taken pursuant to this subsection (2) has the SAME EFFECT AS AN ACTION TAKEN AT A REGULAR OR SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BOARD AND MAY BE DESCRIBED AS SUCH IN ANY DOCUMENT.
ELECTRONIC MAIL OR OTHER WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS USED TO PROVIDE
NOTICE OR TO DISCUSS THE PROPOSED ACTION ARE SUBJECT TO THE OPEN MEETING REQUIREMENTS SPECIFIED IN PART 4 OF ARTICLE 6 OF TITLE 24, C.R.S.

(f) The board secretary shall ensure that all writings made pursuant to this section are filed with the minutes of the board meetings.

(g) In addition to the list described in section 24-6-402 (7), C.R.S., the board secretary shall maintain a list of persons who ask for notice of a proposed action to be taken pursuant to this subsection (2). The board secretary shall notify each person on the list of a proposed action and shall specify in the notice that a member of the public may request that the board discuss the proposed action in a regular or special board meeting.

SECTION 6. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 23-71-102.5 as follows:

23-71-102.5. Local district college - local college district -
