

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

I, Nelson C. McLean, Secretary of State of the State of Colorado, do hereby Certify that at a meeting held at this office in the City of Denver on the 22nd day of December, A.D. 1894

And I was H. White, Governor

Nelson C. McLean, Secy of State, Alford James Travis, Eugene Engley, Atty Genl., J. M. Goodfellow, Auditor, constituting the State Board of Canvassers of the State of Colorado, proceeded to examine and make statements of the whole number of votes given at an election held on the 5th day of November, A.D. 1894, for officers mentioned in Section fifty-three of an act of the General Assembly of said State, entitled "Elections" and approved March 5th, A.D. 1877, that were voted for at said election, which statements, certified to be correct and subscribed by the members of said State Board of Canvassers, with a certificate of their determination as to what persons were duly elected to such offices or any of them, indorsed and subscribed thereon, were filed in my office.

I Further Certify That by said statements and certificates of determination, it appears that

Dora Crossingham

received the Eighth highest number of votes cast for a woman in said county being Thirty-two Thousand six hundred and sixteen (32,616) votes for the office of Member of the House of Representatives of the State of Colorado in the Tenth General Assembly from the County of Grand was by said State Board of Canvassers declared duly elected to said office.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State at the City of Denver this Eighteenth day of December, A.D. 1894.

Nelson C. McLean Secretary of State

