INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were read by title:

SR00-008

by Senator Thiebaut--Concerning recognition of the month of May as Mental Health Month.

2728293031323334

WHEREAS, The General Assembly recognizes that good mental health is critical for the well-being and vitality of our families, businesses, and communities; and

WHEREAS, Mental illness will strike one in 5 Americans each year regardless of age, gender, race, ethnicity, religion, or economic status; and

WHEREAS, One in 5 children suffers from a diagnosable mental or emotional disorder and one in 10 children has a serious disorder that, if untreated, can lead to school failure, addiction, and even suicide; and

WHEREAS, Mental disorders are more common than cancer and lung and heart disease combined, making mental illness the most prevalent health problem in America today; and

WHEREAS, On December 13, 1999, Surgeon General David Satcher released the first-ever report to focus on mental health and mental illness stating that mental illness is the second leading cause of disability in the United States and that over the last two decades there has been a scientific revolution in studying the brain and behavior leading to the development of new and more effective treatments and services for people with mental illness; and

WHEREAS, On May 3, 2000, Thomas H. Bornemann, Ed.D., Rear Admiral and Assistant Surgeon General, will make a presentation to the public in Denver on the Surgeon General's Report on Mental Health; and

WHEREAS, The Mental Health Association of Colorado, the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill Colorado, the Colorado Behavioral Healthcare Council, the Mental Health Services Division within the Department of Human Services, the National Mental Health Association, and the National Council for Community Behavioral Healthcare, and their partners observe Mental Health Month each year during May to raise awareness of mental health, mental illness, and insurance discrimination against people with mental illnesses; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

That May 2000, is proclaimed as Mental Health Month in Colorado. The General Assembly calls upon all citizens, government agencies, public and private entities and institutions, businesses, and schools in Colorado to recommit our state to increasing the awareness and understanding of mental illnesses and the need for appropriate and accessible services for all people with mental illness.

Laid over one day under Senate Rule 30(c), and placed on the calendar of Friday, April 14.

SR 00-009 by Senator Dennis--Concerning recognition of the seventy-fifth anniversary of Adams State College.

WHEREAS, In 1879, Billy Adams came to the San Luis Valley at the age of 17 to begin ranching; and

WHEREAS, Billy Adams was a man of vision who became the mayor of Alamosa by the age of 20; and

WHEREAS, Billy Adams, who eventually became a Colorado legislator and Governor of the state, turned his focus to establishing a teachers' college for the communities of Alamosa and the San Luis Valley; and

WHEREAS, Billy Adams persevered for three decades before obtaining the authorization from the Colorado General Assembly to found Adams State Normal School in 1921; and

WHEREAS, Adams State Normal School was originally established to educate teachers to work in remote, rural areas, such as the San Luis Valley; and

WHEREAS, The communities of Alamosa and the San Luis Valley faithfully supported the establishment of Adams State Normal School through methods such as a significant pledge of $27,000 by Alamosa families and businesses to support Adams State operations in lieu of state funding and through the donation of books to the school's library by townspeople and faculty members; and

WHEREAS, Adams State opened on June 15, 1925, offering a 4-year college curriculum leading to a bachelor of arts degree with a life certificate to teach in the public schools of Colorado; and

WHEREAS, Adams State's first fall term in September of 1925 saw an enrollment of 42 students taught by 3 faculty members; and

WHEREAS, In the following year, enrollment at Adams State had more than tripled to 132 students; and

WHEREAS, In 1929, the General Assembly appropriated $100,000 for construction of a south wing of the administration building and in 1930 changed the name of the school to Adams State Teachers College; and

WHEREAS, In 1942, Adams State Teachers College was accredited by the American Association of Teachers Colleges; and

WHEREAS, In 1945, the General Assembly again changed the name of the school to the Adams State College of Colorado to recognize its development in fields other than teacher education; and

WHEREAS, Today, Adams State College of Colorado boasts 52 buildings on its 90-acre campus with an enrollment of over 2,500 students on campus and more than 10,000 additional students in extended studies; and

WHEREAS, Adams State College has 123 highly qualified full-time and part-time faculty members and offers bachelor of science, bachelor of arts, and masters of arts degrees, as well as associate degrees in pre-professional programs and concentrations in over 50 areas of study; and

WHEREAS, Adams State College is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs; and

WHEREAS, Among its many accolades, Adams State College has Colorado Commission on Higher Education-recognized programs of excellence in business, biology, and music; and

WHEREAS, Adams State College has received the Sears Cup for top overall Division II athletic programs in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Adams State College of Colorado has been recognized each of the last 4 consecutive years by an independent, national rating service, Institutional Research & Evaluation, Inc., as one of "America's 100 Best College Buys", which service annually evaluates colleges and universities across the United States and selects only those that meet high academic standards, but which keep costs among the lowest in the nation; and

WHEREAS, This distinction recognizes the excellent academic programs offered at Adams State College at a low cost to students; and

WHEREAS, This remarkable institution of higher education will celebrate its seventy-fifth anniversary this year; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

That we, the members of the Senate of the General Assembly, extend our congratulations to Adams State College of Colorado on its seventy-fifth anniversary and commend its faculty, staff, and students on establishing a history and tradition of educational excellence.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to the following persons: Dr. Tom Gilmore, president of Adams State College of Colorado; Ferris Berbig, the mayor of Alamosa; and Bob Zimmerman, the chairman of the Alamosa Board of County Commissioners.

Laid over one day under Senate Rule 30(c), and placed on the calendar of Friday, April 14.

SR 00-010 by Senators Blickensderfer, Feeley, and Powers--Concerning introductions made on the senate floor.

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

That Rule No. 31 (f) of the Rules of the Senate is amended to read:

31.USE OF SENATE CHAMBER AND PRIVILEGES

(f) There shall be no introduction of visitors or groups in the Senate gallery. Introduction of guests on the floor of the Senate shall be limited to the immediate families of members, former members of the Senate, present or former elected state officials, members of Congress, elected officials of other states or the United States, and foreign dignitaries. IN ADDITION, A SENATOR MAY INTRODUCE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE BEEN RECOGNIZED STATEWIDE FOR A SIGNIFICANT ACCOMPLISHMENT OR ACHIEVEMENT OR THE MEMBERS OF AN ACADEMIC OR ATHLETIC GROUP OR ORGANIZATION WHO HAVE ACHIEVED A SIGNIFICANT GOAL SUCH AS WINNING A LEAGUE, STATE, OR NATIONAL TITLE, COMPETITION, OR CHAMPIONSHIP. No introductions shall be made during deliberations by the committee of the whole or when the Senate is engaged in third reading of bills.

Laid over one day under Senate Rule 30(c), and placed on the calendar of Friday, April 14.

SR 00-011 by Senator Dennis--Concerning the encouragement of efforts to ensure the enfranchisement of United States military and overseas citizens.

WHEREAS, There are more than six million United States citizens either in the military or residing overseas who are guaranteed the right to participate in the voting process in this country pursuant to the federal Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act; and

WHEREAS, Of those six million citizens, Colorado currently has 18,887 citizens serving in the Armed Forces, over 14,000 voting age family members of such citizens, and more than 44,000 citizens residing overseas, all of whom are eligible to vote and whose right to vote is guaranteed under the federal Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act; and

WHEREAS, Each year, a number of military and overseas citizens are disenfranchised due to time constraints related to absentee voting, confusion in the absentee voting process, late voter registration, and other problems associated with the absentee voting process in each state; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Voting Assistance Program within the United States Department of Defense works to identify ways that each state in the nation can improve its absentee voting process in order to facilitate absentee voting by military and overseas citizens and avoid disenfranchisement of those citizens; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Voting Assistance Program has identified several areas in Colorado's absentee voting process that could be changed in order to improve the process and ensure that its military and overseas citizens have the ability to participate in every election in the state; and

WHEREAS, The Colorado Secretary of State oversees the state's voting procedures and recommends changes to such procedures when necessary to improve the election process and protect the voting rights of Colorado citizens; and

WHEREAS, It is the duty of the Colorado Secretary of State to ensure that all Colorado citizens, including its military and overseas citizens, have the opportunity to participate in the statewide and local elections in the state; and

WHEREAS, The Colorado Secretary of State should consider changes to the absentee voting process in the state if necessary to guarantee the voting rights of the state's military and overseas citizens; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

(1) That the Senate encourages the Federal Voting Assistance Program to continue its efforts to ensure that every United States citizen who is in the military, is a voting age family member of a citizen in the military, or resides overseas has the ability to vote in every federal and state election in which such citizens are entitled to vote.

(2) That the Senate encourages Colorado Secretary of State Donetta Davidson to work with the Federal Voting Assistance Program and consider its suggested changes to state and local absentee voting procedures to determine whether such changes are necessary to facilitate absentee voting by Colorado military and overseas citizens.

(3) That the Senate encourages Colorado Secretary of State Donetta Davidson to make recommendations to the General Assembly regarding whether changes to state and local absentee voting procedures are necessary to ensure the enfranchisement of Colorado's military and overseas citizens.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to Secretary of State Donetta Davidson, the director of the Federal Voting Assistance Program within the United States Department of Defense, and each member of Colorado's delegation to the United States Congress.

Laid over one day under Senate Rule 30(c), and placed on the calendar of Friday, April 14.

SR 00-012 by Senator Rupert--Concerning the adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women by the United States Senate.

WHEREAS, The United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on December 18, 1979, and became an international treaty on September 3, 1981; and

WHEREAS, As of March of 1999, 162 countries had ratified the Convention and the state legislatures of six states had endorsed the United States' ratification of the Convention; and

WHEREAS, The Convention provides a comprehensive framework for challenging the various forces that have created and sustained discrimination based on gender against half the world’s population, and the nations in support of the present Convention have agreed to follow the prescriptions of the Convention; and

WHEREAS, The State of Colorado shares the goals of the Convention, namely affirming faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, and in the equal rights of women; and

WHEREAS, Although women have made major gains in the struggle for equality in social, business, political, legal, educational, and other fields in this century, there is much yet to be accomplished; and

WHEREAS, The State of Colorado recognizes the greatly increased interdependence of the people of the world; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting and appropriate to support ratification of the most important international agreement affecting the lives of women throughout the world; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Sixty-second General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

1. That the citizens of Colorado recognize that we are citizens of the world, with responsibilities extending beyond the boundaries of our city, state, and nation.

2. That the Colorado Senate urges the United States Senate to ratify the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and to support the continuing goals of that Convention.

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of the United States Senate and to each member of Colorado’s Congressional delegation.
