102      CORRECTIONAL EMPLOYEES APPRECIATION WEEK.

1            WHEREAS, The General Assembly recognizes the importance of 2      corrections in the criminal justice system and the magnitude of the 3      contributions made by correctional employees in the State of Colorado; 4      and

5            WHEREAS, Correctional employees are the primary agents for 6      promoting health, welfare, security, and safety within correctional 7      facilities and in parole and other community supervision programs; and

8            WHEREAS, Correctional employees directly interact with 9      convicted offenders and are the essential catalysts of positive change in 10     the correctional process; and

11           WHEREAS, Correctional employees risk their lives daily to 12     protect the citizens of Colorado from persons incarcerated for committing 13     crimes against society; and

14           WHEREAS, The National Correctional Officers Association will
