101     CONCERNING RECOGNITION OF HOME EDUCATION IN THE STATE OF 102     COLORADO.

1           WHEREAS, The state of Colorado is committed to excellence in 2     education; and

3           WHEREAS, The state recognizes the importance of parental
4     choices in pursuit of educational excellence and the significance of family 5     involvement in education; and

6           WHEREAS, The state of Colorado recognizes the right of parents 7     to direct the education and upbringing of their children; and

8           WHEREAS, Home education demonstrates the vital importance 9     of parental involvement in the education of children; and

10          WHEREAS, Home education is an inextricable part of our 11     national heritage, playing an important role in the formative years of such 12     Americans as George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Quincy
13     Adams, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin D. Roosevelt,
14     Abigail Adams, Patrick Henry, John Jay, Booker T. Washington, Andrew

HOUSE
Final Reading
April 8, 2005

1 Carnegie, Thomas Edison, Mark Twain, and Ansel Adams; and

2 WHEREAS, Home education is the fastest growing educational 3 alternative in this country, and a growing number of parents in Colorado 4 have chosen to teach their children at home; and

5 WHEREAS, Recent scientific studies have found that home-
6 education students, on average, score between the 75th and 90th
7 percentile on nationally standardized tests administered in grades 1 8 through 12; and

9 WHEREAS, Home-educated students captured four of the top six
10 positions in the 2005 Colorado State Spelling Bee, including first place; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, Home-educated young men and women regularly 13 serve as interns and aides in the Colorado House and Senate; and

14 WHEREAS, Home-educating parents ought to be commended for 15 the extraordinary sacrifice and commitment they bring to the education 16 of their children; and

17 WHEREAS, It is appropriate that Colorado home educators and 18 home-educated children be recognized for their contribution to the 19 diversity and quality of education in this great state; and

20 WHEREAS, Volunteer organizations such as Christian Home
21 Educators of Colorado, Concerned Parents of Colorado, and hundreds of 22 home-education support groups throughout the state provide a network 23 of support, resources, and encouragement to thousands of 24 home-education families around the state; now, therefore,

25 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-fifth
26 General Assembly of the State of Colorado, the Senate concurring
27 herein:

28 That we, the members of the Sixty-fifth General Assembly of the 29 state of Colorado, honor, thank, and celebrate home educators and the 30 home-educated youth of this state, and recognize April 8, 2005, as Home
31 Education Day in Colorado.

32 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Resolution be 33 sent to Christian Home Educators of Colorado and Concerned Parents of 34 Colorado.
