

The Liberty At Life’s End -- Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Colorado.

Be it Enacted by the People of Colorado:

SECTION 1. In the constitution of the state of Colorado, add article XXX as follows:

ARTICLE XXX

Liberty at Life’s End (or Medical Sovereignty)

Section 1. Purpose and findings.

The people of the State of Colorado hereby find and declare that:

- (1) Recent scientific advances in medical technology and treatment have made the act of dying much more complicated. It is producing cures for many formerly fatal conditions, but yielding little in other cases, leaving some Coloradans wanting to shorten their dying period by obtaining Medical Aid In Dying.
- (2) Despite the fact that both the Declaration of Independence and the constitution of the state of Colorado proclaim that certain natural rights-- such as life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness-- are so fundamental as to be self-evidently inalienable, Coloradans do not currently have the liberty to pursue happiness by obtaining a medical professional’s assistance in achieving a peaceful death thru the administration of oral or intravenous drugs.
- (3) The people of Colorado hereby proclaim that mentally competent adult residents of Colorado are Sovereign in the matter of personal medical decisions and have the liberty at life’s end to set the time and tone of their own deaths, asking permission of no person or organization.
 - a. The people of Colorado hereby further declare that any person or group assisting a Sovereign as defined in Section 3 above obtain Medical Aid In Dying is immune from prosecution upon presentation of acceptable documentation of the voluntary nature of the action.
 - b. The Sovereign’s right to obtain Medical Aid In Dying is not limited to the maintenance of mental competency only, but can be durable into incompetency if desired and documented.
