TITLE: CONCERNING REQUIRING CERTAIN APPLICANTS FOR CONCEALED HANDGUN PERMITS TO COMPLETE A HANDGUN TRAINING CLASS ON THE PHYSICAL GROUNDS WHERE THE CERTIFIED INSTRUCTOR OF THE COURSE OFFERS THE COURSE.

Summary of Legislation

Under current law, to obtain a concealed carry permit, a person must demonstrate competence with a handgun. Competence can be demonstrated by various methods, including the completion of a handgun training class. This bill clarifies that a handgun training class, for the purposes of satisfying the requirements of obtaining a concealed carry permit, must not offer any portion of the course online or at any location other than where the certified instructor provides the course. The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.

Assessment

This bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact because it does not affect revenue, expenditures, or workload for any state agency or unit of local government.
