applying for, renewing, reinstating, or reactivating a license, certification, or registration to disclose specified information about their practice history to the director of the division of professions and occupations for inclusion in a publicly available database.

The bill adds the following health care providers to the list of providers required to report information to the director, with the requirement taking effect July 1, 2014:

- ! Athletic trainers;
- ! Massage therapists;
- ! Certified nurse aides;
- ! Occupational therapists;
- ! Respiratory therapists;
- ! Pharmacists;
- ! Psychiatric technicians; and
- ! Surgical assistants and surgical technologists.

Additionally, the bill removes from the list of health care providers subject to the act hearing aid providers because the state no longer licenses those professionals.
