Stephanie Villafuerte
Child Protection Ombudsman

Fiscal Year 2022-2023 Strategic Policy Initiatives

The Office of Colorado's Child Protection Ombudsman (CPO) is pleased to share this Quarter Four Performance Evaluation that tracks the agency's performance on its Strategic Policy Initiatives (SPI). SPI help to ensure that the CPO is effectively and efficiently implementing practices to address system-wide issues impacting child protection systems, while also providing a high quality of service for individuals seeking one-on-one assistance.¹ SPI are intended to guide the agency's work for multiple fiscal years. To create meaningful change, the CPO regularly updates SPI as the needs and resources of the agency expand, and as the field of child protection changes.

In its FY 2021-22 Performance Plan, the CPO identified three SPI to help guide the agency's work in the areas of communication and outreach, efficient and impactful practices, expanding expertise and promoting best practices. They include:

- Outreach and Education: Educate the public and stakeholders about the CPO to ensure equitable access to services and to identify opportunities for improvement.
- Services and Programs: Continue to develop and strengthen efficient and effective CPO practices to better serve Colorado citizens.
- Public Policy: Continue to serve as a leader in advancing reforms to Colorado's child protection system.

Each SPI has corresponding strategies, critical processes, key activities, as well as key outcome(s) and metrics, that help demonstrate the CPO's performance towards achieving the SPI. These are detailed later in this document. Key takeaways from quarter four FY 2022-2023 include how the agency:

- Broke 1,000 cases for the first time in agency history, the CPO opened 1,119 cases in FY 2022-2023 – marking a 14% increase from FY 2021-2022. The agency's Q4 cases increased 30% from the same period last fiscal year with 300 opened. This increase included upticks of 283% for cases initiated by youth and 15% by caregivers.
- Hit unprecedented heights in outreach after implementing its new digital marketing strategy. Earning 37,232 digital impressions from youth, parents, caregivers and community members, targeted content raised awareness of the agency and its services among new audiences in all 64 counties across the state. In 11 days, CPO outreach materials garnered 73% more views than all agency content from March 2022 – March 2023.
- Continues to collaborate with legislators, stakeholders and people with lived experience in Colorado child protection systems to develop and promote evidence-based solutions to the systemic issues experienced by our clients, youth, families and others in communities across the state.

The CPO is committed to establishing and tracking performance metrics. Please reach out to the CPO with any questions or for additional information.

SPI 1 – OUTREACH AND EDUCATION: Educate the public and stakeholders about the CPO to ensure equitable access to services and to identify opportunities for improvement.

The CPO is statutorily required “to help educate the public concerning child maltreatment and the role of the community in strengthening families and keeping children safe.” See C.R.S. § 19-3.3- 103(2)(c).

The CPO has identified the following strategies, critical processes, key metrics and outcomes as ways to increase the public’s knowledge of the CPO’s services while concurrently learning how best to engage with various communities.

Strategy: Target communications and engagements to strengthen the CPO’s statewide presence and services.

The CPO will work to ensure that all communities in Colorado have equal access to CPO services and information. Expanding engagement with communities less familiar with the CPO –particularly populations which are overrepresented in the child protection system – will be key to promoting impactful, equitable reforms to Colorado’s child protection system.

Critical Process: Engage youth impacted by the child protection system to increase the number of youth who receive services directly from the CPO, promote equitable access to services and improve how the agency serves youth in Colorado.

At the CDHE Celebration of Educational Excellence, the CPO directly engaged current and former foster youth.
- Engage Youth Panels: In preparation for launching the Tori Shuler Youth Voice Program (YVP), the CPO met with Tori Shuler at Fostering Great Ideas to get her input on the formation of the program. The CPO later conducted a presentation on its services, YVP and opportunities for sharing stories through the media at a LEAP meeting. Additionally, the CPO met with AmeriCorps to learn more about its VISTA program and the potential for adding an agency internship for youth recently involved in Colorado child protection systems. An outline was developed for one of the program's first projects – the development of a multi-year, targeted youth outreach campaign in partnership with current and former youth involved in child protection systems. SPI 2 – SERVICES AND PROGRAMS: Continue to develop and strengthen efficient and effective CPO practices to better serve Colorado citizens.

The CPO is statutorily required “to receive complaints concerning child protection services made by or on behalf of a child relating to any action, inaction, or decision of any public agency or any provider that receives public moneys that may adversely affect the safety, permanency, or well-being of the child.” See C.R.S. § 19-3.3- 103(1)(a). These include one-on-one services for clients who contact the agency with concerns or questions regarding the child protection system, reviewing critical incidents – such as child fatalities – and monitoring the safety and well-being of unaccompanied immigrant children residing in state-licensed facilities.

The CPO has identified the following strategies, critical processes, key metrics and outcomes as ways to help ensure efficient and effective CPO services.

Strategy: Provide ongoing professional development opportunities for CPO staff.

The high demand for CPO services requires staff to be efficient in contacting citizens, identifying their concerns and determining what is necessary to help citizens resolve their inquiry. Ensuring CPO staff are supported will, in turn, ensure the CPO is providing services in an efficient and effective manner. Q4 Performance

- Send Newsletters: Following the results of the Q3 survey of its listserv, the CPO paused the distribution of its newsletter to reevaluate how or if it will be utilized moving forward. This will be reflected in the agency's communications plan for FY 2023-2024.
- Post CPO Work to Website/Social Media: Following feedback from youth and stakeholders, and an internal audit of the CPO's website, it was determined that the agency's existing website structure was insufficient to effectively communicate the amount of content the agency has added since its development in 2019. The CPO contracted with Peak Creative to design a new website that provides greater accessibility and easier access to more information and resources.
- Attend Stakeholder Meetings: The CPO is engaged in numerous task forces, working groups, committees, commissions, policy review teams and recurring meeting groups across Colorado child protection systems.
